The Miami Office advised by communication dated August 23, 1960, that all logical PCIs and CIs were contacted in the Miami area for information regarding subject covering the period from July 8, 1960 through August 4, 1960, with negative results. They advised no information had been received from Immigration and Naturalization Service, Miami, Florida, regarding any notification of subject's contemplated travel.

[redacted] - PCI, advised SA JAMES P. O'NEIL on 9/22/60 that he believed the TRAFFICANTES were "steering clear" of bolita in the area and that with the incarceration of HENRY TRAFFICANTE perhaps they would move into horse or dog booking.

[redacted] PCI, Tampa, advised SA JOHN J. GAFFNEY on October 21 and 27, 1960, that according to his sources, subject was in Miami, Florida, and that he had been unable to determine the exact address in Miami or what subject was doing in Miami.

[redacted] PCI, advised SA O'NEIL on October 20, 1960, relative to JAMES M. McEWEN's public charges that Republican U.S. Congressman WILLIAM C. CRAMER received money from FRANK TRAFFICANTE, that there was no chance that the money had been given to C. RAY SMITH, DRAMER's partner, and then not be turned in by him. Source said he was sure that the money went to CRAMER though in all probability it was not reported as a campaign contribution. He noted he had received information from "good sources", and in addition knew CRAMER had been the guest of SANTO TRAFFICANTE in Havana, after the 1954 election. He said he had been in Havana the week following, stayed at the same place, the name of the apartment hotel he could not recall, and learned then that CRAMER, with ROYCE KILPATRICK, former law partner of CRAMER, had been there and SANTO TRAFFICANTE had picked up the tab. PCI said he would not and could not testify to such but that he believed ROYCE KILPATRICK furnished the above information to JAMES M. MC EWEN.

SA EDGAR ADAIR, Intelligence Unit, IRS, Tampa, who requested his identity not be disclosed outside this Bureau, advised on October 28, 1960, that [redacted]
