A reference was given as SARAM AMERLING, 358-5th Avenue, New York City.

Under "current address" the following appeared in the employment file:

June, 1966	122 West 29th Street New York, New York
July, 1966	310 West 94th Street, Apartment 7B, New York, New York

UFK Law 10(a)1

The employment file, above, reflected that subject's husband was named LOUIS JONES and that Miss TEKIRIAN had a card for one LOUIS H. JONES, 309 West 99th Street, New York City, as a former employee. LOUIS H. JONES was born March 17, 1934, at Arlington Heights, Ohio.

On July 26, 1966, Mr. JOHN JULIANO, Building Superintendent, Basement Office, 340 Haven Avenue, New York City, advised subject resided at 340 Haven Avenue, Apartment 5-S, and that her husband and three children had not yet joined her. Subject told Mr. JULIANO that subject's husband and children were presently out of town.

On July 26, 1966, Miss MARSHA MARTIN, Registrar's Office, Columbia University, New York City, advised SA WARREN A. GORTON that subject had attended the Columbia University School of Social Work from 1956, through 1958.

On March 3, 1966, Mr. GOBEL JONES, 3027 Colerain Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio, advised SAS RICHARD T. LAINE and THOMAS P. SCOLLARD he is the father of LOUIS HENRY JONES, who departed the United States in April, 1961, and travelled to Cuba with his wife, LENNA SCHWEITZER JONES. Mr. JONES advised all the members of his family disapprove of LOUIS living in Cuba and have tried to influence him to return to the United States.

NY 105-49812

He said LOUIS' brother, JOHN P. JONES has received a recent letter from LOUIS during the past few months. Mr. JONES advised that in his last letter, LOUIS said that his teaching contract in Cuba would be completed in June, 1966, and he planned to return to the United States at that time. Mr. JONES stated that LOUIS and his wife have three children at the present time, all born in Cuba.

Mr. JOHN P. JONES, Sales Manager, the Vandenberg Company, 426 Findlay Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, advised SAS LAINE and SCOLLARD on March 3, 1966, that he resides at 117 Calhoun Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, with his mother, ETHEL WEST JONES, who is employed as a practical nurse in a private home.

JOHN P. JONES stated the last letter received from LOUIS, about January, 1966, showed the return address as Apto 2, Ave 3 (Tercera) #1804, Miramar, Havana, Cuba. LOUIS stated in this letter that he would complete his work contract in June, 1966, and would return to the United States at that time. JOHN P. JONES had learned from LOUIS' letters that his brother had been engaged in the past two or three years with work dealing with the psychological testing of Cuban children under the sponsorship of the Cuban Government. LOUIS also had some part in the publication of a journal dealing with the psychological testing of children.

On August 17, 1962, J. WALTER YEAGLEY, Assistant Attorney General of the United States, made available a copy of a cablegram from Havana, Cuba, dated August 13, 1962, to ROBERT KENNEDY, Attorney General of the United States, alleging persecution of WILLIAM WORTHY, Negro journalist, and protesting WORTHY's indictment and conviction for his travel to Cuba without a valid passport. The cablegram also alleged that mass arrests and police brutality had been directed against the Negro people throughout the United States. Among the signers was LENNA JONES, not further identified.

WILLIAM WORTHY, Jr., was convicted in the United States District Court (USDC) in the Southern District of Florida, August 6, 1962, for violation of Section 1185B, Title VIII, USC, in that he entered the United States in October, 1961 from Cuba without a valid passport.
