The report of SA JAMES H. THOMPSON dated March 2, 1960, at Salt Lake City, sets forth that by communication dated January 29, 1960, the Chicago Office advised that on January 28, 1960, CG 6343-C* furnished information indicating that ROSSELLI attended a gathering of Chicago hoodlums at the home of SAMUEL GIANCANA on January 16, 1960. According to this informant, ROSSELLI was admonished by Chicago top hoodlums, SAMUEL GIANCANA and MURRAY HUMPHREYS, for apparent indiscreet actions on ROSSELLI's part in Las Vegas, Nevada. 114

Proser Productions which ranges in the immediate neighborhood of $277.92.

UFR Act. 6 (4)

On July 9, 1958, LA T-5 furnished information that he had learned from [redacted] that the owners of the Tropicana Hotel desired Monte Proser Productions to follow the course of action taken by other floor shows in the gambling casinos in Las Vegas in having the girls completely undressed, at least from the waist up. According to LA T-5, [redacted] is entirely against such a course of action and believes that the floor show at the Tropicana Hotel will continue to have a greater drawing power if it does not follow this trend.

LA T-5 stated that in June, 1958, the owners of the Tropicana Hotel believed that Monte Proser Productions was receiving too high a percentage of the total cost of the show and tried to persuade Monte Proser Productions to take a smaller amount; however, according to LA T-5, [redacted] and ROSSELLI demanded that the Tropicana Hotel live up to its contract of giving Monte Proser Productions ten per cent of the gross cost of the show and this agreement is still in effect.

LA T-5 stated that the contract between the Beverly Hilton Hotel and Monte Proser Productions, Inc. to stage a floor show at the Beverly Hilton Hotel will be canceled because the Beverly Hilton has found that the cost of the show and of preparing the hotel so that such a show can be staged is too great.

On September 25, 1958, LA T-5 furnished information that JOHN ROSSELLI is still connected with this firm and that he spends more time in Los Angeles now than he previously did. He stated this company had received two letters in the past several months, from the Nevada Gaming Control
