The following investigation was conducted by
SA KENNETH A. WILLIAMS:

AT VALDOSTA, GEORGIA

On November 13, 1963, DONALD OTIS LAWSON, inmate, Lowndes-Troupville State Prison Branch, furnished the following information:

He has no personal knowledge or proof that the subject had a financial interest in the American Analytical Laboratories, New Orleans, Louisiana, but strongly suspects that he financially supported JAMES CULOTTA in the actual construction costs of the laboratory. To LAWSON's recollection, MARCELLO visited the laboratory on two or three occasions, and on one occasion during its construction, however, he made no comment on the physical aspects of the building to indicate he was putting up all or a part of the money to finance its construction.

LAWSON stated he was on speaking terms with MARCELLO but had no direct personal relationship with him. LAWSON will cooperate in any manner with any Federal agency, even to the extent of traveling to New Orleans to secure evidence against the subject. LAWSON is eligible for parole on January 12, 1964.

TRAVEL

NO T-3, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised an Agent of the Bureau on October 16, 1963, that CARLOS MARCELLO had asked [redacted] of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, to use his residence located at 1416 West Lake Drive, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, to meet with some unidentified individuals about the first part of January, 1964. T-3 advised that [redacted] did not know the identity of the individuals MARCELLO wanted to meet or the nature of the meeting, however, he indicated that [redacted] would be cooperative with the Government in the event MARCELLO did attempt to set up a meeting at this residence. T-3 advised that [redacted] residence is a rather elaborate five bedroom home located on the lakefront at Fort Lauderdale and would be an extremely private meeting place. T-3 advised that the request of MARCELLO to use this residence was rather vague but apparently an inquiry made to determine if the house would be available. NO T-3 advised that he would immediately furnish

MISCELLANEOUS

JACK BATES, U. S. Bureau of Wildlife Management, advised SA FRANK A. SASS, JR., on October 28, 1963, that his agency has been maintaining an aerial surveillance of the area known as Churchill Farms which is a large track of swamp land owned by CARLOS MARCELLO. This area is an excellent duck hunting area and there are numerous duck blinds maintained on the property. BATES also advised that the aerial surveillance has determined that the area in the vicinity of the duck blinds has been baited.

BATES said that it is his intention that sometime in the last few weeks of November that his agency will conduct a raid at this Churchill Farm area for the purpose of identifying and charging the individuals who are hunting from baited duck blinds.
