On 10/25/63, MR. HERB TAYLOR, Taylor Publishing Company, was interviewed concerning his gambling with PERKINS. TAYLOR stated that during approximately the last year he has lost a minimum of $30,000 to LAWRENCE PERKINS and RICHARD MELVIN and a third party whom he believes was involved with PERKINS and MELVIN by the name of BERT DOOLEY. TAYLOR related that his acqueintance started with these individuals through MELVIN appearing at their publishing company, stating that he was married to the third wife of the late TOMMY DORSEY and that he wanted to have a book published concerning TOMMY DORSEY's life. TAYLOR related that a friendship developed and he was subsequently drawn into poker and gin games with MELVIN. Approximately three months after meeting MELVIN, BERT DOOLEY, who is on their Board of Directors. introduced him to PERKINS who subsequently, in poker games, obtained a minimum of $30,000 from TAYLOR. TAYLOR advised that he was not aware of the losses by the other "suckers" in this game. TAYLOR advised that he suspected that GEORGE OWENS and BILLY RAY DAVIS (162-264) were involved in setting him up for PERKINS and MELVIN.

As reported in re airtel, OWENS was interviewed concerning his part in PERKINS taking WILLIAM PETREE in a gin game at the Montmarte Club. It was subsequently learned that R. D. MATTHEWS, local strong-arm man, was looking for OWENS concerning his talking to the FBI.
