and Brew at Plantation, Florida. This source advised that BRUCE was alleged to be driving a 1973 brown Chevrolet leased on a stolen Texco Credit Card from either Hertz or Sunnysouth Car Rental Agency. The following additional information is set out in the administrative section as it is not regarded as suitable for the details of this report and is reported hereafter:

MM 2073-C previously had volunteered information to the effect that he believed that one JOHN T. SHADWELL had rented at least one or more automobile, reported the same stolen to the police, and in fact turned the automobiles over to JERRY BUCHANAN. Concerning JOHN T. SHADWELL, MM 1148-C on May 10, 1973, advised the following:

CI advised JOHN T. SHADWELL was employed by A A Holiday, Inc. He stated SHADWELL was a former ship captain and had some connection with Marina I. He stated the man spoke with an English accent, is about 48 years old, believed his middle name was TARRING and his date of birth was about February, 1925. CI stated SHADWELL was employed at A A Holiday, Inc., a rental car agency at 633 NE 79th Street. CI stated this business no longer exists. CI reported that on or about November 14, 1970, SHADWELL rented a 1970 Chevrolet Malibu, light green, four-door, VIN 136390R257908, from Atlas Rent-A-Car, Inc., 160 NW 79th Street, 757-5508. At that time, SHADWELL gave his telephone number as 940-1839. CI doubted SHADWELL could be reached at that number any longer. At that time, SHADWELL was working on "Two J's" yacht. Renting out the automobile he made an $80.00 deposit. Three days later, on November 17, 1970, SHADWELL reported the car was stolen. Atlas Rent-A-Car was eventually paid for their loss by All State Insurance Company. The alleged theft was reported to the North Miami Beach Police Department. CI stated the North Miami Beach case file was 8530-C, the All State claim number was 42B82175.

SHADWELL claimed the car had been stolen at Marina I. CI stated he saw SHADWELL perhaps one month ago. SHADWELL had expressed a desire to rent a second car from Atlas Rent-A-Car, however, CI declined the rental in view of the fact he suspected SHADWELL stole the afore-said 1970 Chevrolet himself and turned it over to someone else. He stated he believed SHADWELL had done the same to A A Holiday, Inc.; however, he stated the records of this corporation no longer exist and he did not think the details of that matter could be found at this time.
