JFK Act 6 (4)

[redacted] confidential source

As a matter of information [redacted] was forced to retire from the New Kensington Police Department in 1956 because of a heart attack. He was recently re-examined by his doctor and pronounced physically fit to return to duty and is now walking a beat in downtown New Kensington. In view of SHARKEY's reinstatement on the New Kensington Police Force he no longer qualified as an informant and his PCI file was closed administratively. In the future [redacted] will be contacted as a confidential source.

By letter dated July 15, 1958, the Bureau was advised of the close acquaintance of former PCI [redacted] with Assistant Attorney General D. MALCOLM ANDERSON, U. S. Department of Justice.

The Prentice Hall Tax Service Book reviewed by SA KILGORE indicates that the United States tax treaty with Greece was ratified on December 30, 1953 to become effective January 1, 1954. The Prentice Hall Tax Service indicates that the tax treaty with certain countries exempts income from rents and royalties from real property taxation; however, Greece is not among those countries.

T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on July 16, 1958, advised that Mrs. KALIOPI HAZIDAKIS, wife of MIKE HAZIDAKIS, left New Kensington, Pa., in 1952 with her son, GEORGE, to return to Greece permanently because she discovered that HAZIDAKIS was having extra-marital relations with Mrs. JULIA TSANGARAKIS, age approximately 45, of New Kensington. T-2 said HAZIDAKIS has confided to him in the past that he has been having sexual relations with the TSANGARAKIS woman regularly since the late forties with the permission of her husband, GEORGE, age approximately 65, apparently because GEORGE has, for some time, been incapable of having sexual relations because of his advanced age and physical condition. According to T-2, HAZIDAKIS recently mentioned that he has not been seeing a great deal of the TSANGARAKIS woman for the past year since she began dating Mayor RAYMOND GARDLOCK of New Kensington. T-2 pointed out that it is no secret in New Kensington that GARDLOCK has been seen in public in New Kensington with the TSANGARAKIS woman during the past year. PA APPROX 1913 PA

T-2 explained that TSANGARAKIS and her husband own and operate a small restaurant on Constitution Boulevard in New Kensington, have two or three grown children and have living quarters above the restaurant.

Mrs. HELEN KIDO, clerk of the Credit Bureau of New Kensington and Arnold, on July 18, 1958, advised from records that GEORGE TSANGARAKIS and wife, JULIA, purchased the Stanton Luncheonette at 634 Constitution Boulevard in New Kensington in October, 1955, and live in an apartment above the luncheonette. As a matter of background information, KIDO stated that Mr. and Mrs. TSANGARAKIS formerly owned the Casa Blanca and International Restaurants in New Kensington for a number of years before buying the luncheonette in 1955 with a down payment of $5,000. KIDO added that CHARLES and NELLE BEACON, address unknown, of New Kensington, have an $8,000 mortgage on the luncheonette. KIDO identified the children of Mr. and Mrs. TSANGARAKIS as MATTHEW, age 22, and MARY, age 20.

It is recalled that TANNAS has been the subject of a Fraud Against the Government Investigation in connection with his application for a $60,000 loan through the Small Business Administration as Treasurer of the Warrington Five and Ten Cents Stores, Inc., Pittsburgh, Pa.

United States Attorney HUBERT I. TEITELBAUM, Western District of Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh, Pa., on July 14, 1958, advised SAS RICHARD GORDON DOUCE and THOMAS G. FORSYTH that he would authorize prosecution of TANNAS under Title 15, Section 638, U. S. Code, for making false statements to the Small Business Administration in connection with his application for the $60,000 loan.

On July 14, 1958, an authorized complaint was filed before U. S. District Judge WALLACE S. GOURLEY by SA FORSYTH and a warrant was issued the same date.

TANNAS was apprehended by SAS FORSYTH and DOUCE in his office in the City Hall, Arnold, Pa., July 14, 1958, and taken before U. S. District Judge GOURLEY where he waived preliminary hearing, was released on his own recognizance, and given until July 18, 1958, to post $250 bond.

The "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette," "Pittsburgh Press," "Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph," "New Kensington Daily Dispatch," and the "Tarentum Valley News," July 15, 1958, editions, featured page one stories and pictures regarding the arrest of TANNAS, linking him with racket "kingpin" GABRIEL MANNARINO of Westmoreland County.

~~LOUIS~~ MACCHARULO, FBI NO. 340922
(Louis Milano)

PA:OHIO;NY

T-2, on July 18, 1958, examined a photograph of MACCHARULO and positively identified him as the individual he previously referred to as LOUIS MILANO, a dealer and part-time supervisor at the Triangle Billiards Gambling Casino and member of the VOLPE mob of Wilmerding, Pa. T-2 emphasized that there could be absolutely no mistake in his identification of MACCHARULO since they served time together in Western State Penitentiary in the thirties.
