On 11/18/64, a subpoena was served on [redacted] by Special Agents of this office which directed him to appear before the Federal Grand Jury at New York City on the morning of 11/24/64.

Information secured from the Trans World Airline revealed that JAMES LANZA had a reservation for a flight to New York leaving at 9:00 a.m. on 11/23/64, and return reservation for the evening of 11/24/64.

SF 2405-C* made available information on 11/25/64, that JAMES LANZA and his brother, ANTHONY LANZA, were discussing his trip to New York. JAMES LANZA indicated, "There was nobody there (at hearing). They quizzed me on the Mafia, and they asked me about Fresno." JAMES LANZA did not give the informant any further details concerning any of the questions asked.

The New York Office by communication dated 11/25/64, advised that [redacted] appeared before the Federal Grand Jury on 11/24/64, and had completed his testimony. AUSA, SDNY confidentially advised [redacted] was upset over the subpoena since he claimed he has had no business dealings with BONANNO. He claimed he met BONANNO only twice at the residence of BONANNO'S son-in-law, Dr. GREGORY GENOVESE. [redacted] complained of the Federal Grand Jury subpoena in San Francisco five years ago when he appeared in Los Angeles, California, and he resented his current interview as "harassment" by the FBI.

also advised the informant that JOHN MISURACA had sent word with his daughter that CAMARATA as well as others in California should be ready and available in the event they are called upon to perform a service in the future. CAMARATA advised that with all the trouble that was going on in the United States with the federal agencies and the organization, he did not want to have anything to do with it. CAMARATA could not see why JOHN MISURACA could not understand that there was too much trouble going on to get themselves involved in something like this.

SF T-1 advised on July 24, 1964, that he had been in touch with ALEX CAMARATA'S wife and she told him that her father, JOHN MISURACA, of Irvington, New Jersey, "didn't have much faith in the membership of La Cosa Nostra in the San Jose and San Francisco Bay Area as they were all too fat and satisfied with their present existence."

ROSE CAMARATA advised the informant that while in Irvington, New Jersey, she saw SALVATORE LOMBARDINO, who sent his regards to SAL COSTANZA and inquired as to his well being.

SF T-2 advised on July 27, 1964, that he had paid a visit to JOSEPH CERRITO at his home on the afternoon of July 26, 1964. Informant advised that ANGELO MARINO and his small daughter were at CERRITO'S home at that time, but that during his stay he learned from MARINO that MARINO, JOE CERRITO, STEVE ZOCCOLI, CHARLES CARBONE and MANNY FIGLIA had been together on Saturday night. Informant stated that MARINO did not indicate the purpose of their meeting nor where the meeting had taken place. Informant noted, however, that he had been at ANGELO MARINO'S home on Saturday night talking to ANGELO MARINO when MANNY FIGLIA arrived and ANGELO and MANNY departed immediately without indicating to anyone in the household where they were going.

JOSEPH CERRITO
Los Gatos, California

SF T-2 provided information indicating that JOSEPH CERRITO and his wife ELIZABETH were planning a trip to Europe and would leave this area sometime in the middle of August 1964.

The files of the Passport Office, Department of State, San Francisco, revealed when reviewed on July 30, 1964, that the passport of GIUSEPPE (JOSEPH) CERRITO and passport of ELIZABETH

CERRITO had been renewed on July 23, 1964. The application for renewal stated that they would leave the United States on approximately August 19, 1964, from Kennedy Airport, New York City via Pan American Airlines; will spend approximately four months in Italy, France, Spain, Portugal and Switzerland as a pleasure trip.

Files of the American Airlines in San Francisco, reviewed on August 3, 1964, revealed that CERRITO and his wife had reservations on American Airlines Flight #14 leaving San Francisco on August 16, 1964, and arriving in New York the same day, traveling first class. The files of the Pan American Airlines in San Francisco, reviewed on August 3, 1964, revealed that CERRITO and his wife had a reservation on Pan American Flight #114 leaving Kennedy Airport, New York on August 19, 1964, for Paris, France. On August 20, 1964, they had a reservation on Alitalia Airlines Flight #327 for Milan, Italy.

On August 3, 1964, SF T-2 advised that JOSEPH CERRITO had informed him that when he arrives in Milan, Italy he would pick up a Fiat automobile at the Fiat factory. The two reviewed a map of Europe and CERRITO indicated that from Milan they will drive down to Genoa and generally follow the coast route through France, including Marseilles and the French Riviera into Spain, where he will visit Barcelona and Madrid. CERRITO also plans to visit Mallorca, an island off of the Spain mainland. CERRITO advised the informant that after this visit he will drive back through France to Switzerland before going south into Italy and on into Sicily, where he will visit members of his family and spend most of his time while in Europe.

SF T-2 on August 13, 1964, advised that he and JOSEPH CERRITO during the period August 4-7, 1964, had made a trip to Hawaii where they rented an automobile for the purpose of looking over the Shaky's Pizza Restaurant and also looking for additional property on which to build another building for a pizza parlor. He stated that they traveled around the area and stopped at various real estate offices and checked on other properties in the immediate area of Shaky's location in Hawaii. Informant advised that property values were extremely high and locations in which they were interested in were completely out of line as to the purchase price. He stated that they also visited the Diamond Head area and after a few days returned by plane to San Francisco.

SF T-2 advised on August 17, 1964, that JOE CERRITO and his wife left San Francisco on Sunday morning, August 16, 1964, from International Airport at San Francisco. He stated that members of the family greeted them goodbye and no other friends were present.

SF 92-593
HKM:lms

On August 16, 1964, the departure of JOE CERRITO and his wife was observed by Special Agents of this office and it was ascertained that members of the immediate family of JOE CERRITO and JOHN ARDIZZONE, his brother-in-law, and a cousin, GIUSEPPE MARINO, who operates the San Jose Imports Company, and JOE CERRITO were also present.

The New York Office by communication dated August 31, 1964, advised that CERRITO throughout his stay in New York City was in contact with SALVATORE J. PROFACI, JR., nephew of the deceased JOE PROFACI. CERRITO was observed on several occasions at the residence of PROFACI and on one occasion BILL BONANNO, son of JOE BONANNO, Commission member, and SALVATORE PERITORE, of the JOSEPH COLOMBO Family of La Cosa Nostra, were also in attendance at the residence. COLOMBO is the current successor to the late JOSEPH PROFACI. BILL BONANNO is the Consigliere of La Cosa Nostra, LA BRUZZO Family, in New York, which was formerly known as the JOE BONANNO Family.

SF T-2 advised on October 1, 1964, that he had received a card from JOE CERRITO on September 30, 1964, and this card had been airmailed from Palermo, Sicily and merely indicated CERRITO was enjoying his trip in Europe.

SF T-2 advised on December 3, 1964, that he had talked to STEVE CERRITO, JOE CERRITO'S oldest son, and STEVE advised the informant that he had been requested to send his father some additional cigars and that he and his wife plan to remain in Palermo through the Christmas holidays. Informant advised that there was no mention made of any plans or date as to when the CERRITOS would return to the United States.

ANGELO MARINO
San Jose, California

SF T-2 advised on August 11, 1964, that he and his wife have visited the summer home of ANGELO MARINO at Aptos, California. Informant indicated that ANGELO MARINO had gone to Sacramento on business that date and that PRECIOUS MARINO, his wife, and her brother, SALVATORE MAGGIO, and family were at the Aptos residence. Informant advised that during the evening, PRECIOUS MARINO "blew her top" and stated that she feels ANGELO MARINO is continuing to have an affair with MARIA MACK and further stated that, "If I catch them together, I'll kill them both." Informant stated

It is apparent that ZERILLI is no doubt identical to JOE ZERILLI, member of La Cosa Nostra in Detroit, and the other individual referred to is possibly ANTHONY JOSEPH (TONY) GIACALONE, also located in Detroit.

STEVE ZOCCOLI
San Jose, California

Investigation has determined that STEVE ZOCCOLI continues to maintain his association with JAMES LANZA with his attendance at the weekly poker games, which are usually held in San Mateo, California. STEVE ZOCCOLI also maintains his association with JOSEPH CERRITO and other members of La Cosa Nostra in the San Jose, California area.

CHARLES CARBONE
San Jose, California

SF T-2 on October 5, 1964, advised that CHARLES CARBONE had been hospitalized at the Santa Clara County Hospital on October 1, 1964, as a result of a heart attack.

Informant stated that while at the hospital he was met by PHIL ZOCCOLI and in a brief conversation, ZOCCOLI indicated that his brother, STEVE ZOCCOLI, had recently placed his home up for sale because of the fact that his wife would like to move to Los Angeles, California where she could be near her daughter.

On November 9, 1964, SF T-2 advised that CHARLES CARBONE was now at home, but was still critically ill. Informant indicated that CARBONE continues to be virtually paralyzed and is unable to speak, apparently as a result of a stroke.

PHIL MORICI
San Jose, California

SF T-2 advised on July 29, 1964, that PHIL MORICI had handled the flight reservations for MANNY FIGLIA and his wife and family on their recent trip to Detroit, Michigan.

JAMES JOSEPH LANZA
San Francisco, California

SF 92-593
HKM:lms

SF T-6 advised on August 24, 1964, that TONY MIRANDA from Phoenix, Arizona and GENE BUFALINO of Los Angeles, California called at the office of JAMES LANZA. Informant advised that the purpose of this call was unknown, however, JAMES LANZA was quite disturbed at the visit of TONY MIRANDA. This may be based on the fact that MIKE MIRANDA, aka, who is known to JAMES LANZA, is now the consiglieri of the VITO GENOVESE Family of La Cosa Nostra in New York City. LANZA advised the informant that he should have been advised that TONY MIRANDA was coming to San Francisco and he was very suspicious about his visit; however, informant was unable to obtain further details concerning this matter.

On December 1, 1964, SF T-2 advised that ANGELO MARINO had commented that MANNY FIGLIA had been in contact with JIMMY LANZA on Saturday, November 28, 1964, and apparently had played cards with LANZA the night before. According to the informant, MARINO stated that MANNY had commented that LANZA had just returned from a trip to New York where he had been subpoenaed to appear before a Federal Grand Jury. Informant stated that MARINO indicated that LANZA'S appearance at the grand jury was "supposedly just routine" and furnished no additional information to the informant.

MEMBERSHIP

DOMINICK ANZALONE
VITO ADRAGNA
San Jose, California

SF T-2 advised on September 18, 1964, that during the past week DOMINICK ANZALONE had continued to associate with VITO ADRAGNA in the operation of the Acme Vending Company. It was noted that ANZALONE continues to participate in the route collections of the business.

SF T-2 advised on September 29, 1964, that JOHN ARDIZZONE on September 25, 1964, advised that VITO ADRAGNA had recently exhibited concern about his vending machine business. According to ARDIZZONE, ADRAGNA feels that authorities are pressuring some of his accounts in an effort to develop information concerning ADRAGNA'S financial dealings and ADRAGNA is obviously upset by this activity. Informant stated that ARDIZZONE did not specifically point out the authorities were putting the pressure on ADRAGNA.

FRANK SORCE

SF T-2 advised on October 28, 1964, that FRANK SORCE continues to be involved in bookmaking activity in the area of Redwood City. The informant did not know the extent of this operation.

CONSPIRATORIAL ASPECTS

SF T-2 advised on September 24, 1964, that he paid a visit to the residence of STEVE ZOCCOLI in order to welcome them back from their trip to the east. He stated while at the residence DOMINICK ANZALONE, MANNY FIGLIA, CHARLES CARBONE, ANGELO MARINO and his wife PRECIOUS also were present. He stated that later in the evening ZOCCOLI, FIGLIA, CARBONE and ANGELO MARINO moved into a separate room next to the kitchen area and the informant remained in the kitchen conversing with Mrs. ZOCCOLI and PRECIOUS MARINO. Informant advised that during this period he overheard part of the conversation from the next room. He noted that STEVE ZOCCOLI had stated to the others that, "JOHN sent his regards to everyone." Informant was unable to determine the identity of JOHN and he did not hear a last name mentioned.

Informant further advised that he overheard MANNY FIGLIA talking about the fact that PETER MISURACA had recently been interviewed by FBI Agents. FIGLIA stated that, according to MISURACA, it was inferred in this interview that he, MISURACA, was in the doghouse in San Jose. Informant stated that during this conversation, the participants expressed considerable concern that someone might be furnishing information to the FBI and also indicated a general feeling that the FBI has plants on all of them.

SF T-5 advised on November 20, 1964, that he had recalled one MATHIS, owner of the Campbell Food Products at San Jose, a firm dealing in dehydrated foods, has discussed ANGELO MARINO with the informant. According to the informant, MATHIS in addition to his San Jose location has an office in San Diego, California and employs at the San Diego location FRANK BOMPENSIERO, who according to MATHIS is an ex-convict. Informant stated that MATHIS has commented to the informant that ANGELO MARINO, whom he has met on occasion, has on numerous occasions visited with BOMPENSIERO at the Campbell Foods Office at San Diego, California. Informant stated that MATHIS has expressed wonder as to why MARINO
