By coincidence, NEWBILL has recently been sentenced for assault with a deadly weapon by the District Attorney's Office, which had been scaled down from a felony to a misdemeanor. NEWBILL, according to the District Attorney's Office, is not desirous of going to jail. He will be sentenced on January 3, 1960 and it is felt by the District Attorney's Office that he should prove cooperative in their contacts with him. There has been no additional information regarding this since the initial contact was reported above.

Apartment 20
Occupation: Waitress

Los Angeles T-32 advised that ANGIE (LNU) was extremely friendly with COHEN and COHEN often came to ANGIE's apartment which is located immediately adjacent to his own, for early morning rides in COHEN's car to places such as Ventura, etc.

The records of the California Bank, Brentwood, reflect that Mrs. ANGELINE DELANEY, 11717 Montana Avenue, Apartment 20, occupation waitress at Tractons, has opened an account at the bank on August 11, 1959. A review of checks issued on this account conducted on October 21, 1959 by SA WILLIAM JOHN NOLAN reflected numerous debit memos for returned checks issued by DELANEY. A personal observation on November 21, 1959 indicated that DELANEY occupies a rear apartment at the Montana Street address, which apartment is approximately 150 feet from COHEN's apartment across a back yard.

The records of the call board reflect that ANGELINE DELANEY telephonically contacted COHEN on September 24, 1959.
