JFK Act 6 (4)

PA, NY

Confidential Informant T-6 advised SA WAYNE D. SMITH on March 4, 1958, that a telephone company employee in Hazleton, named MARGE HOOVER told him she had a date with a man named (FNU) ROGERS in the early part of February 1958. HOOVER said ROGERS was staying at the Hotel Casey in Scranton, Pa., and that she spent the night with him there after having met him in the Orchid Club in Scranton. The informant said according to HOOVER, ROGERS was employed as a dress salesman out of New York City, and during the course of the date he told her he was a good friend of RUSSELL A. BUFALINO. ROGERS also told HOOVER he did not believe BUFALINO would be deported, and further, he was in Scranton since he expected to be interviewed concerning BUFALINO by FBI Agents.

MARGE HOOVER also told the informant her date was prearranged by CARMEN "HAM" CLEMENT, bartender at the Ovalon Club in Hazleton. She also said ROGERS was snowbound at Genetti's Hotel in Hazleton during the snow-storm the week end of February 18, 1958, and while there he called her and wanted her to come out to the hotel and spend the night with him. She stated she declined because of what he had told her about BUFALINO.

According to the informant, MARGE HOOVER is a telephone company operator who works split shifts, and on her nights off, she prostitutes. He said she resides at 585 Manhattan Court, Hazleton, where she lives with her mother and a ten year old daughter. He stated she formerly worked as a waitress in Yanuzzi's Cafe, West Diamond Avenue, Hazleton.
