ADMINISTRATIVE

On 8/18/67, the Los Angeles Office advised LA 4476-C-TE during the past year has maintained a close relationship with Los Angeles LCN Boss FRANK DESIMONE, who died on 8/4/67. On basis of relationship, informant introduced telephonically with Dallas LCN Boss CIVELLO and handled business dealings in California for CIVELLO. Informant recently contacted by CIVELLO who desired informant to meet with him in Dallas during the weekend of 8/19/67 to discuss future business dealings. Informant was to arrive in Dallas 8/19/67 for two-day conference with CIVELLO. Dallas was requested not to cover above meeting and Bureau on 8/19/67 concurred.

On 8/21/67, Los Angeles advised informant met with CIVELLO on 8/19/67 at the Hilton Hotel (actually Hilton Inn) in Dallas. Among things discussed with CIVELLO by informant were future plans to obtain Teamsters loan for purpose of purchasing Riviera Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada. CIVELLO reportedly advised informant he had no such contacts, but said he would make arrangements and have informant introduced to his good friend in Kansas City, NICK CIVELLA. Arrangements were being made for informant to fly to Kansas City on 8/22/67.

On 8/22/67, Los Angeles advised their informant met with JOE CIVELLO and AL MARSHAL at the Hilton Hotel, Dallas, on 8/19/67, and discussed plans of informant to obtain Teamster loan with which to purchase Riviera Hotel, Las Vegas. Introduction of informant to NICK CIVELLA, Kansas City, was to be through AL MARSHAL. On 8/21/67, MARSHAL telephoned informant from Dallas, advising he and NICK CIVELLA were then in Dallas but were going to New York City. Informant was instructed to be on standby to travel to New York City to meet with MARSHAL and CIVELLO and to be introduced to an individual there who could obtain Teamsters financing.

Los Angeles noted that MARSHAL is personally known to three LCN bosses, namely, FRANK DESIMONE, JOSEPH CIVELLO and NICK CIVELLA, latter LCN boss of Kansas City, and stays at numerous hotels throughout the country. Los Angeles advised that because of MARSHAL's LCN associations, a separate AR case was being opened on MARSHAL and requested a number of offices to check hotels where MARSHAL had stayed for toll calls.

On 8/23/67, Los Angeles advised the above LA informant contacted MARSHAL and learned that MARSHAL was in Dallas and had agreed with JOE CIVELLO to obtain Teamster financing through a source other than NICK CIVELLA. Informant had received a message the night of 8/22/67 to telephone MARSHAL at Essex House, New York City. MARSHAL told informant that CIVELLO spoke with "Little Joe" (LNU) and arranged for MARSHAL to meet with him in Dallas. MARSHAL told informant he and "Little Joe" (identified as JOE IANNI, close Dallas associate of CIVELLO) were currently in New York City and intended to personally introduce informant to MR. R. P., the top man in New York City. MARSHAL alleged through R. P. they would be introduced to the successor to Teamster boss JAMES HOFFA, through whom financing could be obtained, and informant would be contacted when the meeting was arranged and informant could fly to New York City. Informant advised he learned through MARSHAL there had been a misunderstanding and that NICK CIVELLA had not traveled to Dallas but that MARSHAL in conversations with CIVELLO had decided a better method of handling was as currently set out above. Texas

On 9/7/67, Los Angeles advised that LA 4476-C-TE had contacted MARSHAL telephonically at Dallas at the Hilton on 9/2/67 regarding the Riviera Hotel financing. Informant informed MARSHAL he would have financial statements for prospective buyers the following week. MARSHAL called informant on 9/4/67 from Dallas advising that his people in Dallas had cooled and they were going to pass this deal. Informant called CIVELLO at his residence in Dallas on 9/5/67. CIVELLO agreed to call back from a pay phone the same evening and when he did, he said his banker had said no on this deal. He said MARSHAL was still in Dallas but would be in Los Angeles later that week and furnish details.

NICK CIVELLA, CARL DE LUNA and ANTHONY CIVELLA were with "Little Joe". A photograph of JOE IANNI has been sent to Kansas City to display to informant to positively identify "Little Joe" as IANNI.

Texas
On 8/18/67, DL 99-C advised that CIVELLO is definitely the leader of the "Dallas Group" and among his associates in this group are the following: CHARLES CIVELLO, ROSS MUSSO, JOE IANNI, JOHNNY ROSS, PATRONO, JOE and SAM CAMPISI, PHILIP BOSCO, SAM LOMONACO, FRANK LOBIANCO, PETER INTERRANTE. Noted all of the above are subjects of pending investigations.

On 8/24/67, DL 135-PC advised that of CIVELLO's close associates, "Little Joe" would most certainly be JOE IANNI.

On 8/9/67 and 8/17/67 and 9/11/67, DL 271-C advised he had not observed subject in company of any unknown persons during the past couple of weeks. Informant has observed subject, his brother CHARLES, and ROSS MUSSO working at the liquor store next door to informant's place during this period.

On 8/24/67, IC JOE A. PEARCE contacted Dun and Bradstreet, Dallas, and reviewed their report dated 8/2/67 on ANTHONY T. BIFANO and the Chez Anthony's, Inc., 6211 Northwest Highway, Preston Tower, telephone EMerson 3-0257, which showed this club is a private one started in 1967. TROY V. POST was listed as the current principal. ANTHONY BIFANO was the former principal but on 8/2/67 he reported that POST purchased the controlling interest in the above club. BIFANO now serves as manager of the club. The club and corporation was incorporated in Texas on 1/18/66 with authorized capital of 100 shares at $10 par value. From then until July 1967, BIFANO was the principal owner. POST purchased the controlling stock in August 1967.

On 8/17/67, HO 1202-PC was unable to suggest who the three Italians were that were allegedly in contact with CIVELLO in Dallas during the latter part of June 1967. When contacted again on 8/18/67, informant advised he had been unable to ascertain who the individuals might be.
