MISCELLANEOUS - INFORMATION CONCERNING
(ACCOUNTING AND FRAUD SECTION)

Rerep from your office dated 10/31/61 reflecting on both the FD-263 and the FD-204 report made by SAs Nicholas McGahan, Jr., and C. Kenneth Arnold, Jr.

This report is not being disseminated pending receipt of corrected pages. In this regard, your attention is directed to Pages 42 and 53 in Part I of the FBI Handbook, which instruct that where several Agents participate in an investigation, the Agent who conducts the major portion of the investigation is to be shown as the author.

In addition the synopsis sets forth in lines 1 thru 19 information which is reported as fact whereas these actually are the allegations made by LA-4350-C and have not been proven or disproven as yet. Further, rerep on pages 2 (including the predication) though the first two paragraphs on page 4 sets forth information furnished by LA-4350-C. In this connection your attention is directed to Page 19d, Part I of the FBI Handbook particularly the last ten lines at the bottom on the page which set out the proper manner in which a predication should be written when an investigation is based upon information furnished by an informant whose identity cannot be disclosed.

By return airtel submit corrected FD-263's and FD-204's showing the appropriate Agent as the author. Delete from the synopsis the material set forth as fact, which is in reality allegations not yet proven or disproven; the synopsis must reflect a clear and concise summary in chronological order of the important facts reported. All the information furnished by LA-4350-C and set forth, as indicated above on pages 2, 3 and 4 should be deleted. The predication should be prepared in accordance with the above Handbook citation. With the deletion of pages 2, 3 and part of page 4 advise with respect to the renumbering of the pages of the report.

Bring the above to the attention of responsible investigative and supervisory personnel who should be scored with appropriate form errors.

Rerep contains very little in the way of actual investigation to "dig in" toward the meat of the allegations in this case but rather is mostly filled with background information. The instructions in Buairtel ordering this investigation set out suggested avenues and goals in this matter but these are not to be considered all-inclusive.

You are reminded that investigation in this matter must be complete, thorough in every respect, and through imagination and probative investigation it may be possible to develop violations of Title 29, USC, Section 186 (LMRA) on the part of Scheib, Doria, Hatfield, and possibly Hoffa if it can be established he shared in any payoff made by Scheib to a union official.
