TURNER is a registered pharmacist in New Jersey, and for some years engaged in this profession and became associated with illegal gambling and bookmaking in the Newark, New Jersey area. TURNER is considered to be an outstanding handicapper of racing and sporting events.

LV T-87 advised that following the KEFAUVER hearings in the early 1950's, that the ABNER ZWILLMAN, JOSEPH STACHER, and JERRY CATENA combine sent CHARLES TURNER, AARON WEISBERG, and MYRON FRIEDMAN to Las Vegas, to look after their interests. Informant advised in 1960, that TURNER was a small-time Elizabeth and Newark, New Jersey gambler when chosen to go to Las Vegas, but has made a lot of money and is a highly trusted employee.

LV T-51 advised in 1961, that he knows that TURNER is DOC STACHER's representative in the Sands Hotel. He knows that TURNER has a two per cent interest in the Hotel, and is not an owner of record. In addition to his regular salary, he receives a return on his two per cent undisclosed interest. TURNER is one who counts two of three shifts daily, which indicates he is trusted, as well as having power. He said in addition to STACHER he believes that JERRY CATENA, Newark, New Jersey hoodlum, is responsible for TURNER being at the Sands Hotel.

LV T-13 advised that at one time CARL COHEN fired CHARLES TURNER from the Sands Hotel. Within less than 24 hours, there was a meeting at the Sands Hotel which was attended by DOC STACHER, who nearly tore COHEN apart verbally, and asked COHEN who in "hell" did he think he was to fire a man like TURNER. He was then instructed to go to TURNER, get down on his knees and apologize, and to have TURNER on the payroll by evening. The informant said COHEN did as instructed and was greatly upset over the fact that he might have put himself and his career in dire jeopardy over the incident.
