MM T-66 advised that LAFF had a big horse book in Chicago, but that in the Miami area is considered a medium size bookmaker, doing some lay-off business in Chicago.

On November 18, 1961, LAFF was arrested by Internal Revenue Service Agents while leaving a North Miami, Florida, apartment where he allegedly handled $100,000.00 daily in lay-off action and was charged with the Failure to Possess a Federal Wagering Tax Stamp, but on July 25, 1962, the United States District Court at Miami acquitted LAFF of this charge.

MM T-67 advised that since his arrest by Internal Revenue Service, LAFF has been extremely careful not to accept any bets from outside the State of Florida so as to insure that he is not susceptible to prosecution by the Federal Government. He stated that LAFF is probably continuing bookmaking activities, but will not take bets from out of the State and will not make telephone calls outside of Florida.

MM T-68 advised that recently LAFF has been spending all of his afternoons playing cards at the Normandy Isle Golf Course, Miami Beach, Florida.
