DECLASSIFICATION AND/OR RELEASE OF THIS DOCUMENT

Reference is made to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police communication dated June 20, 1968, relating to black power activities in Canada, a copy of which was furnished your Agency by liaison.

Your attention is directed to the paragraph bearing number 22 in referenced communication containing information from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police source described as being of unknown reliability. According to this source, Ted Watkins has stated that both Cuba and China have plans to ship arms to United States Negroes from South America. We would appreciate receiving any information which you may possess or are able to develop concerning this matter.

For your information, we have requested that our Legal Attaches in Mexico City, Santo Domingo and Buenos Aires alert their sources to the possibility of these arms shipments from South America.
