GUS ALEX, Also Known As ANTI-RACKETEERING

FILE EUROPE - FRANCE
SWITZ.

A highly confidential Chicago informant advised that after Alex and his paramour, Suzanne Fueger, arrived home from their recent European trip, Alex received a letter from the Swiss Consulate in Chicago notifying him he has been banned from Switzerland until January, 1975.

Alex's concern has increased considerably because of this order and he has until March 31, 1965, to appeal the order. Alex contends he will send an attorney to Switzerland to fight this matter if necessary.

Alex is known to have frequently discussed banks in Switzerland and has been observed in Swiss banks by the Swiss Police. This coupled with Alex's great concern over the banning makes it appear possible that he has funds presently in the Swiss Bank.

Chicago is awaiting further information regarding use of false identification by Fueger while in Paris. Chicago is desirous of obtaining full details regarding the cause of this investigation in Switzerland and France and any efforts made by Alex in his defense, regarding the above matter, may disclose other interests in Switzerland besides skiing and recreation.

It is noted that upon arrival at U.S. Customs, O'Hare Field, Chicago, Fueger was found to possess three mink coats and
