ADMINISTRATIVE DATA

PHILADELPHIA

By letter 3/29/60, the Miami Division stated that the Miami files reflect that MM 647-PC advised that ANGELO BRUNO of Philadelphia has gone into the cigarette vending machine business in the Miami area.

PH 523-C on 4/26/60, engaged SUE BRUNO, wife of ANGELO BRUNO, in conversation, at which time, SUE told the informant that she had recently written a check in the amount of $50,000 to purchase control or part interest in a vending machine business in Miami, Fla. In addition she said that she and ANGELO BRUNO had a financial interest in the Monmart (phonetic) Motel "next to the Eden Roc" in Miami but that this financial interest could not show. SUE BRUNO told the informant that she had returned to Philadelphia from Miami the previous evening, 4/25/60, and had made a number of trips from Philadelphia to Miami and, in fact, made two trips within one week during the recent past. SUE BRUNO said that ANGELO BRUNO had been able to obtain most of his $180,000 investment in a gambling casino in Havana, Cuba, and to get this money out of Cuba.

Regarding the vending machine business in Miami or Miami Beach, SUE BRUNO told the informant that the check for $50,000 as well as the business was in SUE BRUNO's name. SUE BRUNO told the informant that she had met a lot of "big people" in Miami but informant was unable to learn the identity of any of these individuals.

COSTELLO will be further identified in the body of this report.

On 4/26/60, PH 523-C was requested to contact the residence of MICHAEL BRUNO, 810 Snyder Avenue, for purposes of ascertaining who was present in this home, considering that a spot check of MICHAEL BRUNO's residence during the evening 4/25/60 until 10:30 p.m. 4/26/60, failed to indicate any unidentified males entering or leaving MICHAEL BRUNO's residence or any unusual activity. On 4/26/60, the informant encountered SUE BRUNO at her son's residence, 810 Snyder Avenue, at which time she obtained the above mentioned information regarding BRUNO's investment in a cigarette vending machine business in Miami Beach and other financial negotiations or investments by BRUNO.

On 4/26/60, ASAC DEAN W. ELSON, Philadelphia, learned from SAC TEAGUE, Miami, that it was possible that the above mentioned phone call from Fort Myers, Fla., to Philadelphia might not have been to JIMMY and could possibly have been to a JEANIE. It is believed that this was the person who was called in Philadelphia inasmuch as JEAN BRUNO, the teenage daughter of ANGELO BRUNO, resides 934 Snyder Avenue, a short distance from where her brother resides, 810 Snyder Avenue, and would logically be at her brother's residence if her parents were both in Miami.

PH 269-C on 4/26/60, telephonically contacted the Maggio Cheese Company, 11th Street and Washington Avenue, where he usually sees BRUNO and talked to SALVATORE MAGGIO who told the informant that he would attempt to locate BRUNO and would call the informant. In approximately 15 minutes, SALVATORE MAGGIO called informant and said BRUNO was not in town and he knew nothing further.

On 4/27/60, MARIO MAGGIO called PH 269-C and said that he had just learned that DAD (referring to BRUNO) would be back in Philadelphia late the following day, 4/28/60.

RIZZO emphasized that this information should not be divulged under any circumstances and was furnished strictly on a confidential basis. He stated that he knew from this and other sources that ANGELO BRUNO definitely had MITCHELL COHEN working for him in BRUNO's numbers activity.

On 3/24/60, PH 269-C advised SA DALE M. HIESTAND that he was well acquainted with MITCHELL COHEN. Regarding COHEN, whom the informant had an appointment with that day, the following information was furnished:

COHEN was best known for being a close associate of former Philadelphia City Commissioner SAMUEL ROSE, deceased. He was characterized in this connection as being a "confidential runner," meaning that COHEN was used to carry confidential messages to people wanting to contact SAMUEL ROSE in a confidential manner.

COHEN maintains close liaison and a friendly relationship with one MORRIS STAR, a former Philadelphia County Detective, who is now employed in the offices of Philadelphia City Councilman HARRY NORWICK. He is a "confidential runner" for STAR at this time. PA

The informant, in fact, was to meet COHEN in STAR's offices later 3/24/60.

The informant stated that COHEN was definitely connected with BRUNO at this time and was in the numbers racket with BRUNO. The informant said that COHEN, he believed, was primarily used by BRUNO for COHEN's connections more than for his numbers operation which BRUNO conducts.

It was previously reported that MM 665-PC on 10/5/59 advised SA ROBERT F. FETZNER, Miami Division, of observing ANGELO BRUNO in the Luau Restaurant, North Bay Village, Fla.

E. LEGITIMATE ENTERPRISES

PH 269-C, on 2/12/60, advised that he had purchased Garwood Industries, a concern selling equipment used by truckers in the removal of trash and refuse. The informant said that he was going to ask BRUNO to invest $20,000 in this venture.

On 3/9/60, the informant stated that this company is located at Kensington and Sedgely Avenues, Philadelphia and that BRUNO had not, as yet, invested money in this venture.

On 3/9/60, PH 535-C advised SA ROBERT W. HOLMES that ANGELO BRUNO recently went to Florida to attend the funeral of HARRY (LNU), 42 years of age, who had dropped dead of a heart attack. The informant said that HARRY owned a motel or hotel, and that BRUNO had money invested in this venture, but his name did not appear on the records.

HARRY's widow has refused to settle with BRUNO, and there is nothing that BRUNO can do since he had no proof of the investment. Informant added that BRUNO was not in good health, having prostate trouble as well as trouble "with his insides."

CONTRACT - CITY OF
PHILADELPHIA
FOR REMOVAL OF TRASH

On 2/18/60, PH 269-C advised SA DALE M. HIESTAND that the property which BRUNO and others were attempting to purchase in Salem, N. J., for disposal of Philadelphia garbage was condemned by the State of New Jersey.

The informant believed that the State of New Jersey purchased the property, and in view of this, the venture to obtain a contract from the City of Philadelphia for removal of trash from the city via water to Salem, N. J., collapsed.

It is to be noted that the informant was frequently contacted on this matter to furnish advice to BRUNO and his associates. The informant pointed out that the Maggio Cheese Company, where he frequently meets BRUNO, is in his opinion "the headquarters for crime in the Philadelphia and suburban areas. The informant also noted that there was someone at the cheese factory on a 24-hour basis.
