and this institution succeeded in obtaining for him employment. The subject left this job and at the present time, according to Mrs. CALI, is listed as an escapee by the State Home. She understands that they do not desire to return him to the State Home for Boys inasmuch as he is over the 16-year age limit, which is the top age received at the institution.

Mrs. CALI advised that her son had married a girl named Mrs. JOHN GROSSI, whose first name is ELIZABETH and who is presently residing at 1655 North Fulton Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland. She stated that the subject married this girl during the last week of November, 1945 and that the girl called her from Baltimore during the first week of December, 1945 advising that GROSSI had already left her and she was about to become a mother. The girl told her the wedding had been solemnized in Bel Air, Maryland.

Mrs. CALI stated that the last time she had had any word from the subject was on December 4, 1945 when he wrote her from the Philadelphia YMCA. She stated the subject has always been a problem and that she feels no responsibility whatever for any of his actions.

VINCENT PARUTA, 213 East Ninth Street, Clifton, New Jersey, stated the last time he saw the subject was two years ago, when he and the subject took PARUTA's family car and went to Baltimore in it. He said he was gone from home only about two days and then he returned. He stated he does not know any of the subject's out-of-town contacts, inasmuch as his mother has forbidden him to see the subject.

Miss DORIS RODIA, 61 Ellison Street, Paterson, New Jersey, advised that she had several dates with the subject two or three years ago and that he had written her, but she stated that she had not heard from him for at least one year. She said the subject would write from all sorts of places, but he would never furnish a return address.

Miss PEGGY McGILL, 365 Crooks Avenue, Clifton, New Jersey, advised that she had dated the subject several times, and he had written her after he left home, but she has not heard from him since January 5, 1944. She said the subject told her that he was in the Merchant Marine.
