LEAD: BUREAU

Pursuant to the request of the INP, the Bureau is requested to furnish in brief summary form any information it may have on the above-listed individuals concerning criminal convictions or criminal proceedings in which they are presently involved.

The INP explained that they presently have all of the above-named individuals on a Watch List so as to preclude their entrance into Italy. The INP now wish to update the Watch List and therefore desire to know of the prosecutive action, past and present, taken against the listed individuals which would assist in their evaluation of the need for maintaining these individuals on the Watch List.
