The CIA source is ^(S) [ROBERT GRANVILLE HENRIQUES], who was interviewed in the NYO on 3/23/64 in the presence of CIA agent HORACE GOELET. Discrepancies between original information as furnished by CIA and information contained in enclosed LHM were resolved in the presence of [GRANVILLE] and GOELET in favor of information as set forth in enclosed LHM. (S) (u)

^(S) [ROBERT GRANVILLE HENRIQUES] obtains his information concerning activities of the MDC from GASPAR VILATO, JR. (S) (u)

During the interview conducted with GASPAR VILATO, JR. he gave every indication of being sincere and of giving an honest opinion of the MDC as he saw the organization.

VILATO, during the interview, was openly critical of the CIA for its past blunders regarding Cuba. He claimed that CIA was using Cuban exiles only insofar as these exiles further the "selfish aims" of CIA and that CIA refuses to work with Cuban organizations which are not totally controlled by CIA, and in some instances, CIA would go to the extent of harassing certain exile Cuban organizations which did not do as CIA wanted and in this regard indicated that the MDC has been harassed in the past for disagreements with CIA.

The enclosed LHM has been classified "Confidential" because it contains information ^(S) so classified by CIA. (S) (u)

The NYO contemplates no further investigation in this matter but will remain alert for activities of the MDC.
