It has been reported that recently two minor hoodlums, Lenny Patrick and "Milwaukee Phil" (Alderisio), had a minor battle concerning their respective territorial jurisdictions for gambling operations, and that the matter was finally arbitrated and settled through the orders of Sam Giancana.

It has also been reported that Anthony Accardo and Paul De Lucia have fallen out of favor with the alleged syndicate because of the publicity they have been receiving. It has been rumored that Sam Giancana issued an order to Accardo that he is not to roam more than six blocks from his home except to answer for subpoenas.

It is further rumored that the alleged Chicago syndicate is no longer ruled by one man but rather by a sort of "presidium" consisting of Sam Giancana, Willie "Potatoes" Daddano, and others not identified.
