1. Thank you for your memo of 1 March. It certainly helps me - in this difficult situation.

2. Concerning your inquiry in paragraph (2) of your memo: My source, a responsible and reliable individual, a "former colleague", must remain anonymous? (You know what a "former colleague" means.) He has the matter assigned to him and has gotten to know very well

Case 36018

[Redacted]

1. I had an opportunity to discuss with a reliable and discreet source on 16 Feb 62 who knows [Redacted] well. His assessment [Redacted] is as follows.

2. [Redacted] is a highly intelligent, over-stimulated individual. He is inclined to accept stories as being true without confirming. He exaggerates and seeks to embellish. He will use every trick and angle "in the book" and anyone he can to further his efforts. If he does a favor for anyone he wants a favor in turn - sooner or later. He looks for publicity and recognition and will use anyone to accomplish this.

3. He was very active during the Kefauver hearings and, according to source, furnished unreliable information.
