Mr. Broe started in the FBI in 1941 as a Special Agent, dealing particularly with German and Russian matters. In 1944 he was promoted to Resident Agent at Youngstown, Ohio, where he handled all categories of Bureau work. Two years later he was selected to be a supervisor. He continued in this capacity, dealing chiefly with security matters, until he came to CIA in 1948. During his term as resident agent he was outstanding in the important and difficult task of winning local police cooperation.

Since he has been with CIA, Mr. Broe has shown exceptional operational understanding and ability. He has a very keen sense of responsibility and a fine devotion to detail as well as to the broad phases of his duties. As a Branch Chief he has been completely reliable and effective. It is planned that he will go to [] in the spring of 1951, or perhaps earlier, to take over the important and delicate work of the [] Research Unit.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: William V. Broe

1. After discussion with the Chief, FBZ, the undersigned talked with subject today and informed him of the following:

a. The position which we had to offer was at P-5. Promotion above that classification would come only after experience in the field, and no guarantee could be made of higher rating even after such experience had been gained by subject.

b. The assignment which we offered him would be in Washington for eighteen months, or perhaps for as long as two years; then probably assignment to a field station.

c. Due to his past employment with the FBI, we would attempt to obtain approval for his entrance on duty on or about June 14.

2. Subject stated that the above was acceptable to him and that he accepted our offer of P-5 position. The undersigned informed Chief, FBZ, of this fact. Processing is being initiated immediately.

Subject has family and does not particularly desire to go to an area where family cannot have adequate living quarters, etc.

Would prefer remain in D.C. for one or two years.

Has no area background or experience — however I feel his investigative experience would adequately compensate for this.

During the reporting period, Mr. Broe has continued to serve as Chief of the WH Division. In this period, he has had to cope with the many crises and confrontations that typify his area, the Allende victory in Chile to successive coups in Bolivia, and growing urban terrorism in many countries. Under his supervision, the budget, program and project submissions of his Division have been effectively presented and defended before reviewing authorities.

Innumerable crash requests for memoranda on a wide range of topics from the White House have been met promptly and satisfactorily.

On the substantive side, he has kept himself abreast of the rapidly changing Latin American scene and on policy matters, his judgment and advice are relied upon at the Assistant Secretary level in the Department of State and the White House.

The high morale of his Division is a tribute to his ability and, on the whole, his performance remains "Outstanding."

new and well placed agent assets. He has supervised effectively Divisional planning designed to exploit to the maximum the opportunities presented by the increasing [] presence in the area.

During the year, political shifts in Peru and Bolivia have served to dramatize the danger of too extensive a reliance [] and Mr. Broe has moved to reduce the profile of our [] presence.

The high morale in his Division comes from the widespread knowledge that good performance is recognized and that career advancement is based on ability rather than any form of favoritism.

On policy matters, his judgment and advice is sought and relied upon at the Assistant Secretary level in the Department of State and the White House. He is a careful and frugal manager in the allocation of increasingly scarce resources and on the whole his performance has been "Outstanding."

2. In the last fitness report on Mr. Broe I commented that "he is easy to work with, exercises the soundest of judgements, maintains excellent relations in the community and will without question turn in a really fine performance as Chief, WH Division." Nothing has happened in the course of the past year to require any change in that comment and prediction. Although the crisis has subsided since the last report, we are not entirely out of the woods there, and there are several other situations in the Western Hemisphere which have been simmering smartly and which have required deft handling. Mr. Broe has handled these excellently, while at the same time he has looked after the normal command and administrative requirements of the Division effectively. He stays in close touch with his key personnel, and keeps himself fully informed of their operations. His community relationships are good and he is held in high esteem by his collaborators in the Clandestine Services. All in all, one must rate Mr. Broe's performance during the last year as outstanding.

Reporting period: July 1965 to date

1. This is a letter fitness report on Mr. Broe as Chief of the WH Division from July 1965 to date.

2. Mr. Broe's file is replete with the highest estimates of his capabilities and performance in the several positions of responsibility he has held in the Clandestine Services. Until coming to the WH Division, his entire career with the Clandestine Services, dating back to 1948, had been in the Far East area. He served as Chief of our Station and later of our Station in which latter position he distinguished himself. He was brought in to take over the WH Division when the Chief of that Division became the DD/P. That in itself was an eloquent admission of the esteem in which his capabilities are held. His performance in the WH Division has fully lived up to this evaluation. He took over the Division just after the Agency had become immersed in the crisis. At the same time, a dozen other problems of one kind or another required the most serious attention. He has made several field trips to his area of responsibility and has shown his usual skill in getting the most

MEMORANDUM IN LIEU OF FITNESS REPORT

SUBJECT: BROE, William V. (1 April 1964 - 31 March 1965)

1. Mr. Broe's performance as Chief of Station, [] during the reporting period is best described as outstanding.

2. For over two years, Mr. Broe has struggled with the problems in [] of reducing the size of the Agency's mission and of developing appropriate areas of clandestine concentration. During the past year, he has effectively gotten the whole mechanism to work, with a marked increase in foreign intelligence and an unprecedented emergence of the Station, through contacts he and his associates have developed, as a channel for political action. Through his skillful assistance to and cultivation of the [] Mr. Broe has placed CIA in a position in [] where the Station Chief and the Agency are accepted by the top levels of the [] as a useful channel and as a dependable organization for collaboration. This high level connection is of tremendous value in advancing political intelligence objectives as well as an essential tool for indirect and unofficial manipulation of situations of key interest to both the [] and the U.S. governments.

3. In the management of the Station, Mr. Broe continues to be his old effective self. He is able to get a good deal of mileage out of the personnel assigned to him and to increase their effectiveness through his own personal leadership. In all this, he has displayed an excellent sense of cost consciousness in the management of the Station.

4. In sum, Mr. Broe has brought [] Station under his tenure to a new role appropriate to the changing times. CIA along with the U.S. Government is now in a better position to deal with an [] which is now looking at [] through its own eyes.

SUBJECT: BROE, William V. (12 February 1963 - 31 March 1964)

1. Mr. Broe's performance as Chief of Station, [] for the period 12 February 1963 to 31 March 1964 can be characterized as strong.

2. Mr. Broe has effectively directed the operations of a station with many targets. He has concentrated the potential represented by the personnel under his authority on the most important targets and firmly discarded marginal activities. In his supervision of the work of the sub-units of his station, such as the [] section, [] section and [] section, he has been effective in encouraging them to vigorous activity but has also asserted the necessary control and guidance from his level. Mr. Broe has maintained excellent relationships with other American services and his coordination process is a model. He has at the same time maintained personal contacts with leading [] both official and unofficial, and has used these both for intelligence and for action purposes. He has wisely targetted the covert action potential of the station toward critical targets and deliberately eliminated marginal efforts. Mr. Broe has on his own initiative made certain recommendations for the reduction of the personnel and expenditures of his station to help meet crises in other areas. In all of this activity, Mr. Broe has reaffirmed his qualities of leadership and supervisory capacity and has demonstrated a full consciousness of the importance of cost.

1. This memorandum in lieu of Fitness Report is submitted on Mr. William V. Broe, Chief of Station, [redacted] to cover the period 1 June 1961 to 11 February 1963.

2. Mr. Broe has directed one of the most complicated and important stations in the Far East area with his accustomed skill, intelligence and delicacy. He has conducted a major reorganization of the Agency's activities in [redacted] and substantially reduced its total commitment there. At the same time he has kept a firm eye on the need for coverage of important targets and has been particularly severe with non-essential or marginal activities. In the Station itself he has directed a complicated structure, with perhaps the largest number of [redacted] cases (with all the difficulties they bring) in the area. He has maintained the Station's relationship and contacts with the Ambassador and the Embassy in an excellent manner, and it is now considered a full partner in [redacted] affairs by the Ambassador. He has maintained extensive and important [redacted] contacts with [redacted] agencies and at the same time kept a high degree of effort on the [redacted] in the area. Subject is Deputy Chief of the Far East Division and has served in that capacity during the entire 23 months of my tenure as Chief of the Division as well as for some months under my predecessor. He also served as my deputy in 1954-1955 at the [redacted] I have, therefore, had ample opportunity to appraise subject's performance under a great variety of circumstances, both in the field and at Headquarters.

Subject is an outstanding manager in the Clandestine Services field. His operational judgment is wholly reliable, he grasps and retains complex details and produces sound and intelligent solutions to operational problems. He is very strong in administration and is particularly adept at personnel management. He has a deep and encyclopedic knowledge of the people in the Far East Division; his approach is personal and sympathetic but his hand is firm when firmness is required. He has been particularly successful in solving personnel assignment problems by matching capabilities to requirements.

In his present job as Deputy Chief of an area division, I do not believe that subject has an equal. This would entitle him, in my opinion, to a rating of "7" in Section B of the Fitness Report form.

SECTION E NARRATIVE DESCRIPTION OF MANNER OF JOB PERFORMANCE

Stress strengths and weaknesses demonstrated in current position. Indicate suggestions to employee for improvement of his work. Give recommendations for his training. Describe, if appropriate, his potential for development or for assuming greater responsibilities. Amplify or explain, if appropriate, ratings given in SECTIONS B, C, and D to provide the basis for determining future personnel actions.

Subject is so well qualified to meet the requirements of deputy chief of a large area division that there may well be a tendency to lose sight of his ability to run an organization of his own. This capability was amply demonstrated when he was chief of the China Branch of FE Division.

Subject is unusually strong as a supervisor. His flair for warm but impartial relationships with subordinates has enabled him to develop a first-hand understanding of the capabilities, shortcomings and problems of a very large proportion of all FE personnel. His direction of personnel does not lack firmness but is expressed in such a way that feelings are considered and best results are achieved.

Subject's operational judgment is entirely reliable. He has an encyclopedic knowledge and understanding of the Division's operations and a full grasp of political implications throughout the area.

I have noted no weaknesses in Subject which would inhibit his successful assumption of increasing responsibilities.

This report has been prepared in accordance with FE Division standards which recognize the individual against the group. It reflects an entirely satisfactory performance.

SECTION IV

This section is provided as an aid in describing the individual. Your description should be objective and unfavorable in itself but acquire its meaning in relation to a particular job or assignment. The descriptive words are to be interpreted literally.

On the left hand side of the page below are a series of statements that apply in some degree to most people. On the right hand side of the page are four major categories of descriptions. The "Not Observed" category is divided into three small blocks; this is to allow you to make finer distinctions. Look at the statement on the left - then check the category on the right which best tells how the statement applies to the person you are rating. Placing an "X" in the "Not Observed" column means you have no opinion on whether a phrase applies to an individual. Placing an "X" in the "Does Not Apply" column means that you have the definite opinion that the description is not at all suited to the individual.

Interpretation of Efficiency Rating

Your efficiency rating is an official record of the way you are doing the work of your job.

Excellent (E) means that performance in every important phase of the work was outstanding and there was no weakness in performance in any respect.

Very Good (VG) means that performance in at least half of the important phases of the work was outstanding and there was no weakness in performance in any respect.

Good (G) means that performance met requirements from an over-all point of view.

Fair (F) means that performance did not quite measure up to requirements from an over-all point of view.

Unsatisfactory (U) means that performance in a majority of important phases of the work did not meet job requirements.

Inspection

You are entitled to inspect your efficiency rating sheet (Standard Form 68), or a copy of it, upon request to your supervisor or personnel officer. You are also entitled to inspect the final ratings (not the rating forms) of all employees in your office or station.

Significance of Efficiency Ratings

An efficiency rating of "Good," "Very Good," or "Excellent" is necessary in order to receive a periodic within-grade salary advancement.

An efficiency rating of "Fair" requires a one-step salary reduction if an employee's pay rate is above the middle rate for his grade (the fourth step in six-rate grades).

An efficiency rating of "Unsatisfactory" requires that the employee be dismissed or reassigned to other work in which he could be reasonably expected to render satisfactory service.

Efficiency ratings are a factor in determining the order in which employees are affected by reduction in force.

Appeals

If you believe your rating is wrong, you should first discuss it with your supervisor or personnel officer. You have the right, if your position is subject to the Classification Act, to appeal your rating within certain time limits to a board of review established for your agency. Appeals or requests for additional information concerning appeals should be addressed to the Chairman, Board of Review care of Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

Recommendation for Honor or Merit Award
William V. Broe, Distinguished Intelligence Medal

After an active and successful career as a Special Agent in the FBI, Mr. Broe entered the Agency in June 1948 and was assigned as the Southeast Asia Branch Chief in the Far East Division. His ability to make decisions, work effectively with both supervisors and subordinates, plus his dependability, initiative and attention to the broader aspects of his work were soon noted and have continued to characterize his long and productive career in the CIA.

In recognition of his long range potential, Mr. Broe was assigned to [redacted] in 1951 as the Chief of Station. In 1953 he was transferred to the important post of Deputy Chief of the [redacted]. Here his leadership qualities were fully demonstrated. His skill in directing an imaginative, aggressive, operational program, while at the same time tempering his actions with mature judgment and smooth management talent, marked him as an officer who could assume even greater responsibilities. At this time his outstanding strength of dealing with people became clearly evident. Mr. Broe was assigned to the Chief of the China Branch in FE Headquarters in 1955. He successfully managed the large, complex branch with a high degree of skill. His enthusiasm for his work was an example for his subordinates.

His superior performance of duty was recognized with his being named the Deputy Chief of the FE Division in 1958. The late Desmond FitzGerald in evaluating Mr. Broe's performance of duty in this position, made the following comments which subsequent supervisors continued to agree with:

"Mr. Broe is an unusually strong supervisor. His flair for warm but impartial relationships with subordinates has enabled him to develop a first hand understanding of the capabilities, shortcomings and problems of a very large proportion of all FE Division personnel. His direction does not lack firmness but is expressed in such a way that feelings are considered and best results are achieved."

Mr. Broe then was assigned in successive and successful tours of duty as Chief of Station, [redacted], Chief of the Western Hemisphere Division and finally as the Inspector General of CIA.

In those diverse assignments, Mr. Broe proved to be a valuable advisor and consultant to top policy makers of the United States Government as well as colleague of foreign governments, including [redacted] and important [redacted] government leaders. His handling of one crisis situation after another whether it was in the Far East, Latin America or in Washington, won Mr. Broe the fullest respect for his wise judgment and effective solutions which resulted for the overall benefit of the US Government. During this time, Mr. Broe continued to display his superior understanding of human relations for those working for him, resulting in a high morale for those associated with him and his missions.

In January 1972, Mr. Broe was promoted to the position of Inspector General, a post which recognized and made the fullest use of his wise and enlightened knowledge of the human side of this organization's affairs.

Based on his 26 years of a professional life which has made singular contributions to the national security and on his unique leadership, it is only fitting that upon his retirement Mr. Broe be recognized with the award of the Distinguished Intelligence Medal.

IN TURN

1. I wish to commend and make a matter of record the outstanding support and guidance rendered to this organization by Mr. William V. Broe, Special Assistant to the Ambassador, [redacted] from the period of July 1963 to date.

2. Mr. Broe's efforts in support of this organization were exemplary. He gave freely of himself and of the resources at his disposal. In those instances where we were contemplating a new approach to obtaining aerospace data of priority national interest Mr. Broe provided for briefings by his specialists in the denied areas under consideration. His every approach was intended to intelligently present the information available concerning the difficulties to be encountered and rewards to be expected. He always left the United States Air Force personnel concerned secure in the knowledge that he fully supported any promising attempt to acquire data of national interest and that he did all in his power to expedite the acquisition of these data. This resulted in a most favorable operating milieu.

3. In all of our dealings with Mr. Broe, we found him to be friendly, highly objective, unswerving in his demands for professionalism, and a person of honor and integrity. We liked, trusted and respected him. Mr. Broe's demonstrated professionalism and ability to advise, stimulate and coordinate the efforts of the many diverse elements engaged in collection of information reflected favorably upon him and the Intelligence Community of the United States.
