

This document is made available through the declassification efforts and research of John Greenewald, Jr., creator of:

The Black Vault

The Black Vault is the largest online Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) document clearinghouse in the world. The research efforts here are responsible for the declassification of hundreds of thousands of pages released by the U.S. Government & Military.

Discover the Truth at: <http://www.theblackvault.com>

GPO 61275
5 Nov. 67

SUBJECT: KING, Martin Luther

Official Name Admittance
in this DoD File

1. Martin Luther KING Jr., born 15 January 1929 in Atlanta, Georgia, has been described as the most prominent leader of the civil rights movement in the US. He is the President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, (SCLC), and is a recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize.

2. In Subject's many activities in the civil rights movement, he has sought and relied upon the advice of various individuals, including the following:

A.

B.

C.

D.

APPROVED FOR RELEASE

Date 8 March 1978

43

3. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

4. The <sup>22</sup> October 1964 issue of Vic Nuovo, an Italian weekly magazine owned by the Italian Communist Party, (PCI), carried an article entitled "What We Negroes Ask of the President" which Vic Nuovo claimed Subject wrote for its exclusive publication. The article concerned the civil rights question in the US and did not appear to be directed specifically to a Communist audience. Despite the date of its publication the article appeared to have been written some months before.

5. An article appearing in the Washington Post on 4 November 1964 stated that Subject was planning a visit to the Soviet Union. He reportedly had been invited to the USSR, but Rev. Ralph ABERNATHY, spokesman for Subject, refused to comment on the source of the invitation.

[REDACTED]

Based on: 201-760966 (KING)

The following documents, held in [REDACTED], were not reviewed:

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] which contain information essential to Subject's file, both appear to have pages missing.

The above memorandum was based exclusively on that information contained in Subject's very incomplete 201 file. No attempt was made to [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] locate or consolidate other information concerning Subject.

[REDACTED]
5 November 1967

EX-0165

SUBJECT: KING, Martin Luther

1. Martin Luther KING Jr., born 15 January 1929 in Atlanta, Georgia, has been described as the most prominent leader of the civil rights movement in the US. He is the President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, (SCLC), and is a recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize.
2. In Subject's many activities in the civil rights movement, he has sought and relied upon the advice of various individuals

A.

B.

C.

D.

Pensinsky

APPROVED FOR RELEASE
19 AUG 1968
Date _____

(43)

E.

3.

Subject met with various leaders of the Italian Communist Party and of the Italian Socialist Party 18 September 1964 in Rome. (Subject was in Rome on that date as part of a tour of Western Europe.) He allegedly discussed with these Italian politicians the demonstrations against segregation in the US which were to be organized in Italy during the following months.

4. <sup>22</sup> The October 1964 issue of Vie Nuove, an Italian weekly magazine owned by the Italian Communist Party, (PCI), carried an article entitled "What We Negroes Ask of the President" which Vie Nuove claimed Subject wrote for its exclusive publication. The article concerned the civil rights question in the US and did not appear to be directed specifically to a Communist audience. Despite the date of its publication the article appeared to have been written some months before.

5. An article appearing in the Washington Post on 4 November 1964 stated that Subject was planning a visit to the Soviet Union. He reportedly had been invited to the USSR, but Rev. Ralph ABERNATHY, spokesman for Subject, refused to comment on the source of the invitation.

13-00000

CONFIDENTIAL

EX-01653

SUBJECT: KING, Martin Luther

Copied from a document in the 201 file to Stanley D.
Leviss.

5 Nov. 67

1. Martin Luther KING Jr., born 15 January 1929 in Atlanta, Georgia, has been described as the most prominent leader of the civil rights movement in the US. He is the President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, (SCLC), and is a recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize.

2. In Subject's many activities in the civil rights movement, he has sought and relied upon the advice of various individuals, including the following:

A. Bayard RUSTIN-Member of the Young Communist League from 1936 to 1941, secretary to Subject from 1956 to 1960, Secretary of the SCLC in 1962, ~~XXXX~~ and organizer of the March on Washington in 1963. RUSTIN attended the Sixteenth National Convention of the CPUSA in 1957 as a non-Communist observer, and was especially active in advising Subject on formulating a position on Viet Nam in 1965.

B. Clarence JONES-General Counsel to the Ghandi Society for Human Rights, and former member of the Labor Youth League, a Communist front.

C. Stanley LEVISON-Ideological Communist and suspected secret member of the CPUSA<sup>D. # 465-201,</sup>

D. Harry WACHTEL-Executive Vice President of the Ghandi Society for Human Rights; <sup>and</sup> member of the National Lawyers Guild, a Communist

Downgraded to 28 Jun 1978
by authority of front.
date 060595

Dr. OPS Lit & phys

CLASSIFICATION REVIEW
CONDUCTED ON 287861
E-2 IMPACT GESEY 06057

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

3. Harry BELAFONTE-Member of the Young Communist League before coming into prominence as an entertainer.
3. According to a source who is considered unreliable, Subject met with various leaders of the Italian Communist Party and of the Italian Socialist Party on 16 September 1964 in Rome. (Subject was in Rome on that date as part of a tour of Western Europe.) He allegedly discussed with these Italian politicians the demonstrations against segregation in the US which were to be organized in Italy during the following months.
4. <sup>22</sup> The October 1964 issue of Vie Nuove, an Italian weekly magazine owned by the Italian Communist Party, (PCI), carried an article entitled "What We Negroes Ask of the President" which Vie Nuove claimed Subject wrote for its exclusive publication. The article concerned the civil rights question in the US and did not appear to be directed specifically to a Communist audience. Despite the date of its publication the article appeared to have been written some months before.
5. An article appearing in the Washington Post on 4 November 1964 stated that Subject was planning a visit to the Soviet Union. He reportedly had been invited to the USSR, but Rev. Ralph ABERNATHY, spokesman for Subject, refused to comment on the source of the invitation.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Based on: 201-760966 (KING)
201-275604 (RUSTIN)
DBB-17872
DBB-88164
CSCI-316, 02051-64
OIRT-6783

The following documents, held in RID/SD, were not reviewed:

TS-188608
TS-188606A
TS-188613

DBB-17872 and DBB-17192, which contain information essential to Subject's file, both appear to have pages missing.

The above memorandum was based exclusively on that information contained in Subject's very incomplete 201 file. No attempt was made to ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~
~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ locate or consolidate other information concerning Subject.

[Redacted]
5 November 1967

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~