criticized by Fidel Castro. According to Miami informant, he is anticommunist and pro-U. S. He had persisted in preventing Paul Castro from distributing and showing procommunist movies to members of his command. In addition, he has been identified as an underground member of the Crusade of Revolutionaries Against Communism in Cuba. Legat, Havana, cablegram 6/23/59 disclosed the Air Attache at Havana was handling plans to smuggle Diaz Lang out of Cuba by boat. Cablegram also indicated that Air Force was contacting INS in Washington, D. C., to arrange his admission to the U. S. (S) Aerial message Number 34622 dated 6/30/59 disclosed that Diaz Lang had resigned and was en route to U. S. aboard yacht "Bounty II." [X] Teletype used in view time element and unsettled conditions in Caribbean area.
