At Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico

On 5/31/65, ~~MEX-275~~ <sup>(u)</sup> who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the identification records maintained at the Monterrey Police Department and at the Nuevo Leon State Police Department, contained no references whatsoever to the name of MIGUEL FONSECA RIVAS.

On 6/11/65, ~~MEX-33~~ <sup>(u)</sup> who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that he made discreet neighborhood inquiries concerning MIGUEL FONSECA RIVAS, and he ascertained that FONSECA is a young man, reportedly employed as a waiter, who resides with his mother at Tecate 120, Colonia Las Mitras. He said neighbors appeared to know very little about FONSECA, contending that he was antisocial and had very little contact with anyone in the neighborhood. He stated the neighbors advised him FONSECA was employed as a waiter, but no one could furnish the name of the establishment where he worked. ~~MEX-33~~ said FONSECA was considered in the neighborhood to be somewhat odd.

On 6/22/65, ~~MEX-33~~ <sup>(u)</sup> advised that FONSECA was not listed as a member of the waiters' union in Monterrey, and he was not known to administrative officers of the union.

On 7/31/65, ~~MEX-26~~ <sup>(u)</sup> who has furnished reliable information in the past, reported that FONSECA and his mother live alone at Tecate 120, Colonia Las Mitras, and that neither of them has much contact with neighbors. He said it was the general consensus in the neighborhood that FONSECA was not well adjusted mentally, and the neighbors avoided his company in the same manner that FONSECA appeared to detach himself from them. ~~MEX-26~~ said that while it was generally believed in the neighborhood that FONSECA was employed as a waiter, he had encountered no one who could identify the establishment in
