ReBucab 2/28/64 and Rome cable 2/29/64 which advised that checks with established criminal and security sources did not reveal any information concerning subjects and their possible travel to Italy.

Upon receipt of Bucable 2/28/64 checks were made immediately with the following sources of the Rome Office with negative results:

Lt. Colonel Vittorio Meneguzzer, Italian Armed Forces Intelligence Service (SIFAR) (C)

Dr. Federico D'Amato, Division of Confidential Matters, Italian National Police (C)

Dr. Aristide Manopulo, Central Bureau, Criminal Division, Italian National Police (C)

On 3/2/64 Sergeant Salvatore Guarnieri, Confidential Squad, Police Headquarters, Rome, Italy, advised that a record was located at the Foreigners Office, Police Headquarters, Rome, for one Demetrio Mohrenschildt, born April 11, 1902, Hanover, U.S.A. This individual was in possession of U. S. passport No. B288918 issued at Washington, D. C., March 23, 1961. The record indicates this person visited Rome during March, 1962, and lodged at a rooming house in Rome. No further information was available. (C)

It is apparent from the variance in subject George De Mohrenschildt's name, date and place of birth, and passport, that above individual is not identical with subject.

The above is furnished for the Bureau's information.
