On 4-30-64, Mr. [Werner Smoydzin, Assistant Chief, Right-Radicalism Division of the Bundesamt fuer Verfassungsschutz (BfV - West German Federal Agency for the Protection of the Constitution),] furnished the following information by telephone as an interim report regarding the status of the BfV efforts to locate the source of the information in the article printed on 11-29-63, in the "Deutsche National-Zeitung und Soldaten-Zeitung" (DNZSZ).

Mr. [Smoydzin] said that it had been determined that the German student, Dick Kunert, was still in Dallas, Texas.

Mr. [Smoydzin] said that the reporter who had written the account of the interview with General Walker had been located and interviewed. According to his preliminary information, the statement in the article to the effect that Oswald had been the one who had shot at Walker was based on an assumption made from information obtained from Walker during the course of the telephonic interview. Walker had not actually said that Oswald had shot at him, but had referred to the fact that he had been shot at. The reporter reached his own conclusion that Oswald had been responsible for this shooting. The second portion of the article which refers to the Attorney General's having stopped the investigation was added, according to the reporter, by the editors of the newspaper.
