KARATSUBA and DIAZ, visited by FEINSTEIN (voice). DIAZ enters KARATSUBA's office, greets him and asks about a bottle. KARATSUBA replies, how about Old Grand Dad. DIAZ thinks that will be a good start. They then read newspapers and comment on their findings. KARATSUBA states that one of his newspapers carried an article in which a world champion rifle shot was quoted as saying that one man could not fire the weapon killing Pres. Kennedy three times in five seconds, would take at least two men. DIAZ does not think they got the right rifle, then relates that the NY Times has an article stating that OSWALDS mother was shown a picture of RUBY seventeen hours before OSWALD was killed. KARATSUBA states that the important thing to him is how OSWALD could be such a good shot after being out of the Marines for three or four years and spending two and a half years in the Soviet Union where they would not let him have a gun. States the important thing is not whether he is Marxist or what ever but that he did so well in five seconds and only ordered the gun in August. KARATSUBA states the FBI saw OSWALD carry the gun in a package, DIAZ corrects him and states it was neighbors who saw the package. DIAZ wonders where Gen. WALKER was during this time. DIAZ thinks the FBI is involved with the Dallas State Police, laughs and states thinks the Governor has a finger in the pie. KARATSUBA does not think the FBI was involved. DIAZ tells KARATSUBA he should read about MALCOLM X speech made at Manhattan Center. KARATSUBA heard over the radio that there were films showing two men in the window. FEINSTEIN enters. DIAZ tells KARATSUBA quickly and softly, "hide the bottle, hide the bottle." KARATSUBA tells FEINSTEIN that he talked with TOMACHINSKI who wants to see him on business, FEINSTEIN exits. They return to the discussion of the two men in the window. KARATSUBA states he would not be surprised if the other man was a policeman, laughs. DIAZ suggest that maybe one was a f---king policeman and the other one FBI, states these f---king FBI Agents are local boys and they are all poisoned and emotional about this shit. DIAZ asks wonder where is BOBBY, he allways had a big mouth, where is he now. KARATSUBA states everybody had something to say but BOBBY, DIAZ thinks BOBBY knows just a little bit more than anyone who just opens his mouth. DIAZ states hasn't heard too much from HOOVER. DIAZ asks, HERBERT? DIAZ states no, EDGAR. DIAZ states, he is in poor health you know. They discuss the telegram Madan Nhu sent and the situation in Viet.

DIAZ states he could write a play about all this, but if he did it would catch him in New Jersey with a camera or something. KARAT states that was his biggest fear in Chicago, that his jacket would be returned with a camera and he could not prove it was not his, states he was really afraid of this. DIAZ states that in the MISS case the typewriter was manufactured to order by the FBI.
