The Consul General of Cuba account at the First National City Bank of New York is an account used primarily for the payment of Consulate expenses and salaries of employees of this Consulate.

The Consulate Generale de Cuba and the Consulate Generale de Cuba Invoices are accounts used as clearing accounts for the handling of funds in connection with imports and exports between Cuba and the United States. The former account is closed at the end of each month by issuing a check to the Manufacturers Trust Company for the balance in the account at the month's end.

It was also requested that RUDOLFO WALSH of Prensa Latina meet FRANK at the airport in Havana, on April 28, 1960. According to the source, the Cuban Foreign Ministry was requested to have Cubana Airlines authorize the New York office of that company to issue a round-trip ticket to FRANK. (S)

On April 27, 1960, NY T-3 advised that ENRIQUE PATTERSON, Charge d' Affaires, Cuban Embassy, Washington, D.C., had received instructions from Havana to immediately determine whether WALDO FRANK would accept an invitation extended to him by Cuban President OSVALDO DORTICOS. (S)

According to NY T-3, PATTERSON stated that FRANK was leaving for Havana, Cuba on April 28, 1960, also that CARLETON BEALS and ROBERT TABER were departing for Havana on April 29, 1960. All three would return from Cuba on May 1, 1960. (S)

On April 28, 1960, Miss ELIZABETH HIRSCH of Cubana Airlines, New York City, advised that her records reflect that WALDO FRANK was scheduled to depart from Idlewild Airport, New York, to Havana, Cuba, aboard Cubana Airlines Flight 999 on April 29, 1960. She advised that CARLETON BEALS and ROBERT TABER have reservations on April 28, 1960. ACTIVITIES OF ROBERT TABER

On April 1, 1960, NY T-2 learned that ~~ROBERT~~ ROBERT TABER would arrive in Havana, Cuba on that date aboard Cubana Airlines Flight 999. According to the informant, [TABER's return passage to New York City had not been arranged and the Cuban Foreign Ministry was supposed to make arrangements for this passage.] (S)

On April 21, 1960, NY T-2 received information that [ROBERTO had requested the following from MAJORIE RIOS, Department of Information, Cuban Foreign Ministry:] (S)

ROBERTO desired to know why the Cuban Government had expelled RICHARD B. BATE, newsman for the Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS), from Cuba. According to ROBERTO, BATE had stated that morning that he was expelled due to the fact that he had an appointment with RAMON CASTRO, brother of FIDEL CASTRO, the Prime Minister of Cuba, also that RAMON CASTRO had disappeared and supposedly left Cuba. According to ROBERTO, BATE had also stated he had spoken with various counter-revolutionaries in Cuba and from his impressions of them BATE believed that another civil war would soon start in Cuba. BATE stated that many revolutionary soldiers were not sure whether they should still support FIDEL CASTRO. (S)

According to the source, on April 21, 1960, [ROBERTO was advised by RIOS that she would forward information to him concerning BATE and told him not to worry about the rebel soldiers because they are loyal to CASTRO.] (S)

On April 22, 1960, the informant advised that [ROBERTO had been told by RIOS that she had no official information regarding statements made by BATE. She did say, however, that the comments by BATE concerning RAMON CASTRO were "completely wild." In this regard she referred to a press release containing statements alleged to have been made by RAMON CASTRO. In this release RAMON CASTRO stated that BATE had furnished false information inasmuch as he, CASTRO, was not outside of Cuba. It was stated that CASTRO was attending the National Assembly of Cane Growers as a delegate from Oriente Province, Cuba.] (S)

Further information concerning [RAMON CASTRO was furnished to ROBERTO on April 25, 1960, by RIOS. It was stated at that time that RAMON CASTRO was in Havana staying at the Hotel Bristol. It was stated that highly placed persons in the Cuban Foreign Ministry had conversed personally with RAMON CASTRO on April 22, 1960. This information was furnished as evidence of the fact that he was still in Cuba.] (S)

On April 25, 1960, [ROBERTO had requested that RIOS arrange to send clippings of any information which could be published. He stated that twice during the last week he had missed the opportunity of "scooping" other papers with regard to RAMON CASTRO's story and the declarations of Cuban Foreign Minister RAUL ROA. According to ROBERTO,] this was due to the fact that the information was passed to him too slowly. (S)

On April 26, 1960, [ROBERTO was advised that the Cuban Government could expect strong opposition in the near future due to the expropriation of land belonging to the United Fruit Company. The following is a summary of material furnished to ROBERTO and he was asked] to advise whether the "releases" were of suitable length and content: (S)

The United Fruit Company will be paid $6,118,047.00 for 272, 000 acres of expropriated land in Oriente Providence Cuba. (X)(U)

[The veteran Argentine Socialist Leader, ALFREDO PALACIOS, will arrive in Havana in the near future as a guest of the Cuban Government to obtain firsthand information on the Cuban Revolution. It was also stated that] the Panama newspaper "Critica" condemns the United States' attitude toward Cuba. (S)

Cuban President OSVALDO DORTICOS declared that Generalissimo RAFAEL L. TRUJILLO of the Dominican Republic, who is never attacked by the United States, did not dare to place arms into the hands of his people since he realizes that they would be used against him. (X)(U)

The twenty-two Venezuelan farmers who captured the Venezuelan traitor JESUS MARIA CASTRO LEON will be invited to join the May 1, 1960, celebration in Havana, Cuba. (S)(U)

JOSE M. MOURE, ex-President of the Association of Latin American Travel Agents, after attending the third congress of this organization in Havana, praised the Cuban Revolution and FIDEL CASTRO. (S)

Construction is underway for a national park in the vicinity of the Sierra Maestra peak Gran Piedra, which will include forests, gardens, a hotel, cabanas, hunting and fishing facilities in an area covering nearly 17,000 acres. (S)(U)

It will be noted that on May 17, 1960, JON SPELLER, 33 West 42nd Street, New York City, advised that he had been in Cuba during the week of May 9, 1960. SPELLER stated that in Cuba he met JUNE COBB, an American who works for the CASTRO Government in the office of Cuban Prime Minister FIDEL CASTRO.

SPELLER stated that according to COBB, MAJORIE RIOS is an Assistant to TONY DE LA OSA, Chief of Public Relations in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Cuban Government. COBB stated that DE LA OSA and RIOS "handled the FPCC for the Cuban Government".

On April 21, 1960, NY T-2 advised that an individual known only to him as ROBERTO [requested the Cuban Foreign Ministry to furnish him biographic and personal information concerning two Cubans, BEATON and CONTE AGUERO. ROBERTO stated that the object in receiving this information was the writing of articles concerning these persons for the "fact sheet". (S) (U)

NY 97-1792

On April 22, 1960, NY T-2 advised that the following data was furnished [to ROBERTO] concerning CONTE AGUERO: (S)

[The Head of the Public Relations Department of the Cuban Foreign Ministry, ANTONIO DE LA OSA,] described (S) CONTE AGUERO as a traitor to his country. It was said that this person was in the service of the worst international interests which are fighting against Cuba, and he was also on the side of the former Cuban dictator, FULGENCIO BATISTA and RAFAEL L. TRUJILLO of the Dominican Republic. TRUJILLO was described by OSA as the "nausea (S) of America". (S)

It was stated that CONTE AGUERO departed Cuba after promoting a misleading campaign in which he reiterated the worn out argument of the enemies of Cuba by saying that a grave communist infiltration was gaining control of the Cuban Government. The arguments of CONTE AGUERO were described as being copied word for word from the assertions of the White Rose, an organization opposed to Cuban Prime Minister FIDEL CASTRO. The arguments of CONTE AGUERO were also stated to have been copied from other "group interests" that have conspired against Cuba. (S) (u)

CASTRO in a recent television interview was alleged to have exposed the treacherous intentions of CONTE AGUERO's campaign and its antecedents. It was stated that CONTE AGUERO completed his actions in this regard by seeking asylum in a foreign embassy in Havana. His purpose in doing this was to create the impression that he was being persecuted for political reasons. (S) (u)

It was stated that CONTE AGUERO was never a revolutionary. He had tried by all means within his reach to make the Cuban revolutionary movement fail during the period of the war against BATISTA. He did this by spreading discouragement and fatalism among the rebels. It was further stated that he participated in a maneuver which was designed to force the Orthodox Party of Cuba to take part in the "mock elections" held by BATISTA. (S) (u)

It was related that CONTE AGUERO did not take much time to openly confess his complicity with "war criminals" and other enemies of Cuba. In the "Diario de Nueva York's" edition of April 12, 1960, his picture appeared with an article which he wrote for RAUL ACOSTA RUBIO. ACOSTA RUBIO was then described as having eluded Cuban justice and as an influential man during the BATISTA dictatorship. At the same time, CONTE AGUERO admitted his allegiance to the international conspiracy against Cuba by repeating to the United Press International news agency the infamous assertion that the Cuban revolution is a communis revolution. At that time he further stated that he would write two books concerning Cuba, and it was stated that both would be published and distributed utilizing the money that BATISTA, TRUJILLO and other foreign interests contribute to the conspiracy against Cuba. (X)(u)

On the same date, the informant advised that the following information was furnished [to ROBERTO] concerning (S) MANUEL BEATON: (X)

BEATON was described as a Cuban from the Sierra Maestra who joined the rebel forces near the end of the war against BATISTA and attained the rank of Captain. He was described as a violent and undisciplined individual who lacked sound revolutionary sense. (X)(u)

BEATON was placed under arrest and at the disposition of military tribunals. He subsequently escaped from La Cabana Fortress with the help of an officer from the fortress guard who is now also under arrest. It is known in Cuba that he has reached the zone of Agua al Reves in the Sierra Maestra where he was born and with which he is very familiar. Since escaping, BEATON has united with a group of fugitives from justice, counter-revolutionaries and former enemies of the BATISTA army which was dissolved. These groups have organized an insignificant band dedicated to robbery and the mistreatment of the "country people." In Uvero, BEATON assassinated the elderly PANCHO TAMAYO who had been an efficient collaborator of the CASTRO forces during the war against BATISTA. (X)(u)

On April 28, 1960, NY T-2 learned that [the Cuban (S) Foreign Ministry was advised that] "Bob" and another unidentified member of the FPCC had been ordered to appear for testimony before the United States Senate Internal Security Sub Committee. According to the source, they were ordered to appear on April 28, 1960. (X)

FINIA was to arrive in Havana, via Cubana Airlines, and was to report to FERNANDEZ to received instructions.] (S)

The source advised on May 9, 1960, that [MARJORIE DE RIOS sent the following message to ROBERT through the Cuban United Nations Mission:] (S)

"In a press release dated April 15, 1960, at New York, Prensa Latina quoted Farrell Dobbs, candidate for the United States presidency under the Socialist Workers Party as stating 'friends and partisans of the ex-Dictator Batista are maintained on the payrolls of the Department of State to aid in counter-revolutionary activities against Cuba.' (S)

RIOS desired to know whether this information could be verified. It was stated that the above was released upon DOBBS return from a visit to Cuba. (S)

In the interview wherein the above statement was made DOBBS also said "Cuba is a small country anxious to maintain itself outside of the fire in which the powers are involved." He was also alleged to have said "in my opinion the preoccupation of the Cuban people under the intentions or policies of the Department of State are well founded. Herter seems to be following the pattern traced by Dulles for Latin America." (S)

According to the source, [RIOS further informed ROBERT that she would advise him about the book as soon as possible. Also] she desired to know from ROBERT whether (S) they could appeal to the Quakers American Friends Service Committee. She stated that this committee had people in Cuba during the revolution and she had seen one very favorable letter from them. (S)

On May 10, 1960, NY T-2 advised that an individual known only to him as CELIA, whom he believed to be with the Cuban United Nations Mission, had requested that an individual known only as RENE of the Cuban Foreign Ministry, Havana, contact "Commentator LUIS CARBONELL," on the behalf of ROBERT. RENE was to request CARBONELL to contact "Bob" collect on the morning of May 11, 1960, concerning CARBONELL's trip to New York City. The telephone number of ROBERT was furnished as PLaza 5-2119. (S)

It will be noted that the above telephone number is listed to the Consulate of Cuba, New York City. (S)

On May 11, 1960, NY T-2 advised that MARJORIE DE RIOS of the Cuban Foreign Ministry sent a message for ROBERTO in which she suggested that their personal messages be numbered in the future in order to facilitate replies. MARJORIE suggested that ROBERTO would find a book entitled "Progesos en Materia de Reforma Agraria" helpful. She explained that the book was published about six years ago by the United Nations and concerns Agrarian Reform. It was suggested that he take note of recommendations of the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations, 13th Session (1951), which approved a resolution "recommending the implementation of Agrarian Reforms in favor of agricultural workers without land". It was suggested that ROBERTO should pay particular attention to page 73 of the above-mentioned book and concluded that "United States Agrarian Reform in Japan paid only in bonds, longer term, lower interest than Cuba". (S)

With respect to ROBERT, "Bob" and ROBERTO as set forth above, it will be noted that ROBERT TABER is a sponsor and Secretary of the FPCC. (S)(u)

ACTIVITIES OF CARLETON BEALS

On April 29, 1960, NY T-2 learned that CARLETON BEALS had been unable to leave the United States for Cuba on April 29, 1960, as he had previously planned. The source advised that BEALS informed the Cuban Government that he had been "forcibly prevented" from going to Cuba to meet with Latin American writers at the invitation of Cuban President OSVALDO DORTICOS, since he had received a "24 hour subpoena" from the United States Senator JAMES EASTLAND. According to the source, BEALS stated that he had been commanded to appear before the Senate Judiciary Committee on April 30, 1960. (S)

CHARACTERIZATION OF ROBERT F. WILLIAMS

The following is a characterization of one ROBERT F. WILLIAMS of Monroe, North Carolina, who may be identical with one of the sponsors of the FPCC:

On April 10, 1950, NY T-4 advised that ROBERT F. WILLIAMS attended a Communist Party (CP) meeting which was held in the headquarters office of the CP, USA, District 22, Charleston, West Virginia, in April, 1950. According to the source, WILLIAMS was a student at West Virginia State College Institute, West Virginia, at the time and was teaching Communism to other students at the school. (S) (U)

On June 15, 1955, WILLIAMS voluntarily appeared at the Charlotte Office of the FBI, at which time he denied ever being a member of the CP, but stated he had met individuals who were members and who he declined to name. He said at one time that he was invited by the "Michigan Edition of the Daily Worker" to become a member of the "Daily Worker" staff in New York. He also stated that while he was in the State of West Virginia, he made a speech before the Open Forum, which pertained to the Negro situation and following this speech an organizer of the CP of West Virginia offered him a free subscription to the "Daily Worker". He stated that in 1953, he was selected to attend the Jefferson School of Social Sciences in New York City. He advised that he attended one session of classes at the school and it was his observation that the information being taught at the school was not "good" and he discontinued his attendance. He did not elaborate on his statement that the information being taught was not "good".

On February 29, 1956, NY T-5 advised [that on that date WILLIAMS had contacted the Soviet Embassy in Washington, D.C., and requested that he be allowed to enter and live in the Soviet Union.] (S)

[On February 2, 1959, NY T-6] (X)(U) made available a piece of the Committee to Combat Racial Injustice letterhead stationery which reflected that WILLIAMS was President of the Union County, North Carolina, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and was Chairman of the Committee to Combat Racial Injustice (CCRI).

[On December 19, 1958, NY T-7] (X)(U) advised that the CCRI was set up in order to concern itself mainly with the issue involving the conviction and incarceration of two Negro youths, DANIEL EZZELL SIMPSON, age eight, and HANOVER GRISSOM THOMPSON, age ten, at Monroe, North Carolina. According to the source, the boys were allegedly convicted on a charge of kissing a white girl.

According to this source, the CCRI also concerned itself with several other racial incidents which occurred in the southern part of the United States and intends to become a permanent organization, which will concern itself with racial incidents.

So that, in a deep way, every witness to the great work you have led and are leading becomes a soldier in your army of free men and women - your army of 'Rebeldes' against the rotten world which my generation bequeathed to yours, for you to recreate.

"May you lead this new world for many years to come. As a loyal American who has always taken seriously the term 'New World' and the dream that a True new world must come in our Hemisphere, I am grateful to you; and I enroll myself as a humble member of your company. On May 12, 1960, NY T-2 advised that as a special service to Prensa Latina, a Cuban news agency, WALDO FRANK had written an article entitled "The State of Mind in Cuba". The source advised that the article was published in newspapers throughout the world, and was very favorable toward the Cuban Government and the people of Cuba. (u)

On April 26, 1960, NY T-2 learned that WALDO FRANK was departing New York City for Havana, Cuba, on April 28, 1960. According to the informant, FRANK would be in Havana until May 1, 1960. FRANK was desirous of an interview with ARMANDO HART, Cuban Minister of Education on April 29, 1960. It was also requested that RUDOLFO WALSH of Prensa Latina meet FRANK at the airport in Havana, on April 28, 1960. According to the source, the Cuban Foreign Ministry was requested to have Cubana Airlines authorize the New York office of that company to issue a round-trip ticket to FRANK. (S)

On April 27, 1960, NY T-3 advised that ENRIQUE PATTERSON, Charge d' Affaires, Cuban Embassy, Washington, D.C., had received instructions from Havana to immediately determine whether WALDO FRANK would accept an invitation extended to him by Cuban President OSVALDO DORTICOS. (S)

According to NY T-3, PATTERSON stated that FRANK was leaving for Havana, Cuba on April 28, 1960, also that CARLETON BEALS and ROBERT TABER were departing for Havana on April 29, 1960. All three would return from Cuba on May 1, 1960. (X)(S)

ACTIVITIES OF ROBERT TABER

On April 1, 1960, NY T-2 learned that ROBERT TABER would arrive in Havana, Cuba on that date aboard Cubana Airlines Flight 999. According to the informant, TABER's return passage to New York City had not been arranged and the Cuban Foreign Ministry was supposed to make arrangements for this passage. (S)

On April 21, 1960, NY T-2 received information that ROBERTO had requested the following from MAJORIE RIOS, Department of Information, Cuban Foreign Ministry: (S)

ROBERTO desired to know why the Cuban Government had expelled RICHARD B. BATE, newsman for the Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS), from Cuba. According to ROBERTO, BATE had stated that morning that he was expelled due to the fact that he had an appointment with RAMON CASTRO, brother of FIDEL CASTRO, the Prime Minister of Cuba, also that RAMON CASTRO had disappeared and supposedly left Cuba. According to ROBERTO, BATE had also stated he had spoken with various counter-revolutionaries in Cuba and from his impressions of them BATE believed that another civil war would soon start in Cuba. BATE stated that many revolutionary soldiers were not sure whether they should still support FIDEL CASTRO. (S)

According to the source, on April 21, 1960, ROBERTO was advised by RIOS that she would forward information to him concerning BATE and told him not to worry about the rebel soldiers because they are loyal to CASTRO. (S)

On April 22, 1960, the informant advised that ROBERTO had been told by RIOS that she had no official information regarding statements made by BATE. She did say, however, that the comments by BATE concerning RAMON CASTRO were "completely wild." In this regard she referred to a press release containing statements alleged to have been made by RAMON CASTRO. In this release RAMON CASTRO stated that BATE had furnished false information inasmuch as he, CASTRO, was not outside of Cuba. It was stated that CASTRO was attending the National Assembly of Cane Growers as a delegate from Oriente Province, Cuba. (S)

Further information concerning [RAMON CASTRO] was furnished to ROBERTO on April 25, 1960, by RIOS. It was stated at that time that RAMON CASTRO was in Havana staying at the Hotel Bristol. It was stated that highly placed persons in the Cuban Foreign Ministry had conversed personally with RAMON CASTRO on April 22, 1960. This information was furnished as evidence of the fact that he was still in Cuba. (S)

On April 25, 1960, [ROBERTO] had requested that RIOS arrange to send clippings of any information which could be published. He stated that twice during the last week he had missed the opportunity of "scooping" other papers with regard to RAMON CASTRO's story and the declarations of Cuban Foreign Minister RAUL ROA. According to ROBERTO, this was due to the fact that the information was passed to him too slowly. (S)

On April 26, 1960, [ROBERTO] was advised that the Cuban Government could expect strong opposition in the near future due to the expropriation of land belonging to the United Fruit Company. The following is a summary of material furnished to ROBERTO and he was asked to advise whether the "releases" were of suitable length and content: (S)

The United Fruit Company will be paid $6,118,047.00 for 272,000 acres of expropriated land in Oriente Providence Cuba. (S)(u)

[The veteran Argentine Socialist Leader, ALFREDO PALACIOS, will arrive in Havana in the near future as a guest of the Cuban Government to obtain firsthand information on the Cuban Revolution. It was also stated that the Panama newspaper "Critica" condemns the United States' attitude toward Cuba. (S)

Cuban President OSVALDO DORTICOS declared that Generalissimo RAFAEL L. TRUJILLO of the Dominican Republic, who is never attacked by the United States, did not dare to place arms into the hands of his people since he realizes that they would be used against him. (S)(u)

The twenty-two Venezuelan farmers who captured the Venezuelan traitor JESUS MARIA CASTRO LEON will be invited to join the May 1, 1960, celebration in Havana, Cuba. (X)(u)

JOSE M. MOURE, ex-President of the Association of Latin American Travel Agents, after attending the third congress of this organization in Havana, praised the Cuban Revolution and FIDEL CASTRO. (S)

Construction is underway for a national park in the vicinity of the Sierra Maestra peak Gran Piedra, which will include forests, gardens, a hotel, cabanas, hunting and fishing facilities in an area covering nearly 17,000 acres. (X)(u)

It will be noted that on May 17, 1960, JON SPELLER, 33 West 42nd Street, New York City, advised that he had been in Cuba during the week of May 9, 1960. SPELLER stated that in Cuba he met JUNE COBB, an American who works for the CASTRO Government in the office of Cuban Prime Minister FIDEL CASTRO.

SPELLER stated that according to COBB, MAJORIE RIOS is an Assistant to TONY DE LA OSA, Chief of Public Relations in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Cuban Government. COBB stated that DE LA OSA and RIOS "handled the FPCC for the Cuban Government".

On April 21, 1960, NY T-2 advised that an individual known only to him as ROBERTO requested the Cuban Foreign Ministry to furnish him biographic and personal information concerning two Cubans, BEATON and CONTE AGUERO. ROBERTO stated that the object in receiving this information was the writing of articles concerning these persons for the "fact sheet". (S) (X)

On April 22, 1960, NY T-2 advised that the following data was furnished [to ROBERTO] concerning CONTE AGUERO: (S)

[The Head of the Public Relations Department of the Cuban Foreign Ministry, ANTONIO DE LA OSA,] described CONTE AGUERO as a traitor to his country. It was said that this person was in the service of the worst international interests which are fighting against Cuba, and he was also on the side of the former Cuban dictator, FULGENCIO BATISTA and RAFAEL L. TRUJILLO of the Dominican Republic. TRUJILLO was described by OSA as the "nausea of America". (S)

It was stated that CONTE AGUERO departed Cuba after promoting a misleading campaign in which he reiterated the worn out argument of the enemies of Cuba by saying that a grave communist infiltration was gaining control of the Cuban Government. The arguments of CONTE AGUERO were described as being copied word for word from the assertions of the White Rose, an organization opposed to Cuban Prime Minister FIDEL CASTRO. The arguments of CONTE AGUERO were also stated to have been copied from ether "group interests" that have conspired against Cuba. (S)(u)

CASTRO in a recent television interview was alleged to have exposed the treacherous intentions of CONTE AGUERO's campaign and its antecedents. It was stated that CONTE AGUERO completed his actions in this regard by seeking asylum in a foreign embassy in Havana. His purpose in doing this was to create the impression that he was being persecuted for political reasons. (S)(u)

It was stated that CONTE AGUERO was never a revolutionary. He had tried by all means within his reach to make the Cuban revolutionary movement fail during the period of the war against BATISTA. He did this by spreading discouragement and fatalism among the rebels. It was further stated that he participated in a maneuver which was designed to force the Orthodox Party of Cuba to take part in the "mock elections" held by BATISTA. (S)(u)

It was related that CONTE AGUERO did not take much time to openly confess his complicity with "war criminals" and other enemies of Cuba. In the "Diario de Nueva York's" edition of April 12, 1960, his picture appeared with an article which he wrote for RAUL ACOSTA RUBIO. ACOSTA RUBIO was then described as having eluded Cuban justice and as an influential man during the BATISTA dictatorship. At the same time, CONTE AGUERO admitted his allegiance to the international conspiracy against Cuba by repeating to the United Press International news agency the infamous assertion that the Cuban revolution is a communis revolution. At that time he further stated that he would write two books concerning Cuba, and it was stated that both would be published and distributed utilizing the money that BATISTA, TRUJILLO and other foreign interests contribute to the conspiracy against Cuba. (X)(u)

On the same date, the informant advised that the following information was furnished [to ROBERTO] concerning (S) MANUEL BEATON: (X)

BEATON was described as a Cuban from the Sierra Maestra who joined the rebel forces near the end of the war against BATISTA and attained the rank of Captain. He was described as a violent and undisciplined individual who lacked sound revolutionary sense. (X)(u)

BEATON was placed under arrest and at the disposition of military tribunals. He subsequently escaped from La Cabana Fortress with the help of an officer from the fortress guard who is now also under arrest. It is known in Cuba that he has reached the zone of Agua al Reves in the Sierra Maestra where he was born and with which he is very familiar. Since escaping, BEATON has united with a group of fugitives from justice, counter-revolutionaries and former enemies of the BATISTA army which was dissolved. These groups have organized an insignificant band dedicated to robbery and the mistreatment of the "country people." In Uvero, BEATON assassinated the elderly PANCHO TAMAYO who had been an efficient collaborator of the CASTRO forces during the war against BATISTA. (X)(u)

The source advised on May 9, 1960, that [MARJORIE DE RIOS sent the following message to ROBERT through the Cuban United Nations Mission:] (S)

(S)

RIOS desired to know whether this information could be verified. It was stated that the above was released upon DOBBS return from a visit to Cuba. (S)

In the interview wherein the above statement was made DOBBS also said "Cuba is a small country anxious to maintain itself outside of the fire in which the powers are involved."
