Copies of the material submitted by [redacted] to the Landesamt fuer Verfassungsschutz - (LfV - State Office for the Protection of the Constitution), State of Niedersachsen, under date of March 16, 1964 (not March 17 as stated by [redacted] in his letter to the Attorney General), were obtained from the Bundesamt fuer Verfassungsschutz - (BfV - West German Federal Agency for the Protection of the Constitution). That material contains a rather lengthy exposition of his background. In that he claims to have spent some time in East Germany where he obtained information regarding supposed clandestine operations being planned by East German agencies against Western nations. He included no specific details but indicated that if action had been taken in the West to offset such plans the assassination of President KENNEDY might have been avoided. (S)(u)

The West German Federal Police have furnished a signed statement taken from [redacted] at Stade in which [redacted] generally reiterates his former statement but specifically states that he has no details regarding the assassination of President KENNEDY either regarding plans for such an assassination or regarding the assassination itself. (S)(u)

The above is being submitted immediately so that the Bureau would be aware of the non-specific nature of [redacted] information and the fact that it contains no facts pertinent to establishing the circumstances surrounding the assassination. Appropriate inserts will be prepared from the German material at hand as soon as possible. (S)(u)
