On October 16, 1964, HERBERTO SPIDOLA, Secretary to the Mexican Consul, San Antonio, Texas, advised the San Antonio office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that an unknown French male, listing his home as Morocco, had been trying for some time to make an appointment to speak with the Consul. (u)

On the morning of October 16, 1964, this individual came to the Consulate and spoke with the librarian, who made an appointment for this man to speak with the Consul at 11:00 a.m. on that date. This man, according to the librarian, said he had some information concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD that he wanted to pass on to the Mexican Consul General. (u)

According to the librarian, this man was dressed in a uniform, but she did not know what sort of uniform it was. The man had left his name written on a small note pad but his writing was illegible, and no one had been able to determine his identity. (u)

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent JOHN V. KNUDSON:

AT SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS:

On October 17, 1964, JOSE INES CANO, Consul General, Mexican Consulate, 127 Navarro Street, advised that MOHAMED LAKHMIRI was presently in his office and stated he wanted political asylum in Mexico because he feared to state any of his political views here in the United States. (u)

Mr. CANO advised that he felt LAKHMIRI was mentally ill and needed psychiatric attention. (u)

Mr. CANO further advised that on two previous occasions he had received letters from LAKHMIRI written in the French. (u)

language. In the first letter, LAKHMIRI mentioned the name of OSWALD in a very nebulous way. In the second letter LAKHMIRI again mentioned that he was destined to play a role like the OSWALD role. Mr. CANO further advised that both letters were rambling and made very little sense. While LAKHMIRI was at the Mexican Consulate, CANO suggested to him that he talk to a representative of the United States Government. According to Mr. CANO, LAKHMIRI refused to talk to any representative of the United States Government because he feels that everyone in the United States and everyone at Lackland Air Force Base is against him. (u)

On October 17, 1964, Mr. BILLY H. CUNNINGHAM, Special Agent, Office of Special Investigations, Lackland Air Force Base, advised that records at Lackland Air Force Base reflect that MOHAMED LAKHMIRI is an aviation cadet with the Moroccan Air Force, Number 4070 MOR, on Special Orders 152 at Lackland Air Force Base, dated August 31, 1964, to train for fifteen weeks in language training and fifty-five weeks in flight training. Mr. CUNNINGHAM furnished the following description which was obtained from the records at Lackland Air Force Base:

Date of birth:	1939, no day or month shown
Place of birth:	Not indicated
Height:	5 ft. 8 in.
Weight:	154 pounds
Hair:	Brown
Eyes:	Brown.

Medical records at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, according to Mr. CUNNINGHAM, reflected on September 29, 1964, LAKHMIRI went to Wilford Hall Hospital, complaining of poor sleeping habits, pain in his throat, and difficulty in breathing. A note on these records indicates the patient himself said he would like to stay in the hospital a few days "because I don't sleep very well."
