MARK LANE
SECURITY MATTER - C

On 4/26/68 BILL ALEXANDER, Assistant District Attorney, Dallas County District Attorney's Office, was contacted regarding Dallas Case Number 87-16,802 (specifically subject ~~Andrew~~ John A. Polomsky).

During the course of the interview, ALEXANDER asked "The Character MARK LANE" is of any interest to the Bureau? He was ~~assured that~~ advised that the Bureau's interest in LANE was unknown to this writer. ALEXANDER then stated that he had known for several years that a picture of LANE as the subject of a masochist rite was in existence and he had acquired this photograph recently from an undisclosed source in New York. He stated that LANE had been critical and caused a lot of trouble for Dallas authorities and the FBI and should LANE return to Dallas, he would be confronted with this photograph.

The photograph was viewed and the subject matter shows [a man nude with his arms taped behind him, sexually aroused, and his sex organs being tortured.]

The photograph contained in instant case file was examined and if not the same man definatesimilarities are suggested to the subject in the photograph held by ALEXANDER.
