cablegram to Bureau 4-15-64.

You are instructed to prepare 25 copies of an appropriate insert concerning David Joseph St. Jacques and forward it to the Bureau for transmittal to Dallas. Include the basis for and results of your investigation which relates to President Kennedy. In addition, prepare 10 copies of a letterhead memorandum incorporating this information which will be disseminated to Secret Service.

Although information concerning St. Jacques may be considered "erroneous," it is pointed out the Bureau has handled many similar situations pertaining to allegations that individuals other than Lee Harvey Oswald were suspects or responsible for the assassination. The President's Commission is interested in all information which may relate to the assassination of President Kennedy, and every effort is made to bring these matters to a logical conclusion.
