Date of transcription 4/8/77

State Judicial Police Agent RENE GRANADOS accompanied Special Agents ROBERT F. ROGERS and HENRY D. TENORIO to the Municipal Jail in Ensenada, Baja California, Mexico, whereby RICHARD SIDNEY WATSON was made available for interview.

WATSON was brought to the Director's Office at the jail and there he was made aware of the identities of the interviewing Agents, Special Agents ROGERS and TENORIO. Prior to any questioning, WATSON was advised of his rights and furnished an interview form entitled, "Interrogation; Advice of Rights" which he stated he understood and signed. He then furnished the following information:

He advised that the information concerning RUBY and OSWALD pertaining to an alleged hotel receipt was information that he had read from the National Enquirer magazine. He stated that as far as he could recall the article, OSWALD and RUBY supposedly met in a motel outside New Orleans, Louisiana, but he could not recall the date of the issue of the magazine.

He stated that while in jail in Ensenada, he had seen a film clip of a 35mm print. The print was subsequently burned, but later a fellow prisoner showed him a photograph of this film clip. The photograph showed four individuals, OSWALD, CHE GUEVARA, a SYLVIA PENAL (wife of a KGB Agent VALERRA KOSTANOF, phonetic), and another individual who appeared to him to be PHILIP AGEE, former CIA Agent. He stated that this photograph appeared to have been taken at the Hacienda Campence, Ciudad de Carmen, Yucatan Peninsula, Mexico.

WATSON also stated that he had furnished all of this information to Admiral TURNER STANFORD, Director, CIA, Western Hemisphere, who is a personal friend of his father and that he had also made this information available to Assistant Director in Charge RICHARD GEBHARDT, Los Angeles FBI, Los Angeles, California. He said that he had contacted GEBHARDT on November 3, 1976, under the Freedom of Information and Privacy Act, regarding information that the FBI might have in their files concerning him. However, he stated he had not received any mail and felt as though his mail was being intercepted at the Ensenada jail.

WATSON also advised that he had made all of this information available to GEORGE GRAY, Staff Writer, Santa Ana Register, Mission Viejo, California.

Interviewed on 4/6/77 at Ensenada, B.C., Mexico
