contemplate that he will be able to furnish any information concerning Subject in the future, although he will attempt to relay any such information should it come to his attention. u

A mutual friend told him that Subject was in Hawaii over Christmas, 1972, and he speculated that this might be related to a new gambling law being proposed in Hawaii. (u)

MEX-334-PCI, of dubious reliability, advised 1-4-73 that, as of that date, Subject was in San Francisco. He said Subject had several houses in Mexico and apartments in Paris and Beirut. He said Subject meets every month with the current head of the mob in Chicago and has a foolproof way of getting in and out of Mexico. (u)

MEX-34 advised 1-9-73 that Post Office Box 1066 in Cuernavaca, Morelos, Mexico, is still in the name SCALZETTI, address Nubes No. 2, Rancho Tetela, Cuernavaca. (u)

He made further contact at the house called Quinta San Cristobal in the Las Quintas section of Cuernavaca and determined that the house has telephone 2-25-00. The house was formerly the property of Mr. SCHULTZ, but he sold it to some company and later it was occupied by a male foreigner. The house is currently vacant, according to the caretaker. (u)

It is noted that this source advised that Subject reportedly was in contact from Beirut with a Mexico City architect named ROBERTO MORALES, office phone 514-1569, home phone 535-3990. (u)

Source speculated that it might be possible to locate Subject in Beirut through long-distance calls to these numbers or to the office of the attorney CASTILLO, Mexico City telephone number 566-5900. (u)
