JERRY JOHNSTON, Assistant Pro, Waiialae Country Club, reported that subject and unknown male No. 2 played 18 holes of golf as a twosome on the afternoons of 6/16-18, 20; teed off at about 11:10 a.m. 6/21 and afternoon of 6/22/63. In each instance, green fees, golf cart and caddy fees were paid by unknown male No. 2. (u)

MIKE HICKEY, Surf-Rider Hotel, confidentially reported dinner reservations for party of six were booked by "PERNO" at the Merry Monarch Restaurant, Waikiki, for evening of 6/20/63 and evening of 6/22/63. Dinner reservations were booked for six at Fisherman's Wharf Restaurant evening of 6/21/63. (u)

HICKEY reported on 6/20/63 that "PERNO" sought to contact CHIAPETTA (ACHILLE J CHIAPETTA - see my airtel 6/21/63), at his Marine Barracks Station, but CHIAPETTA was not in and a message was left for him to call back. (u)

On 6/22/63, CHIAPETTA contacted "PERNO" at 6:28 p.m. from the Lobby telephone indicating he would come right up. However, at 6:35 p.m., CHIAPETTA again called and was given instructions on how to get to PERNO's Lihikai Suite. This would indicate the first occasion of CHIAPETTA's visit in that suite. (u)

According to HICKEY, at 9:53 p.m., 6/20/63, a male voice in the PERNO suite telephoned 991388 to inquire for one "LYNN" (ph). The party was not in. Telephone company records reflect this number is listed to the recently opened Waikiki Restaurant - night club known as Betty Reilly's Copacabana at 1900 Kalakaua Avenue. (u)

On 6/25/63, PCI [redacted] advised that one ANN LUND, possibly identical with LYNN, is associated with BETTY REILLY in the operation of the Copacabana. It is noted that an item appeared during 5/63 in EDDIE SHERMAN's Column in the "Honolulu Advertiser", regarding appearance of FRANK SINATRA at the opening of the Copacabana, assisting his "old friend" BETTY REILLY. (u)

HICKEY reported an incoming long distance call at 1:18 a.m., 6/23/63 from some female asking for "SAM" PERNO. The operator was advised that "Mr. CARSON" in another room, was taking the calls. No information was available on any subsequent call to CARSON. (u)

HICKEY reported "PERNO" telephoned PAULINE LAKE, afternoon of 6/21/63. It was subsequently determined that PAULINE LAKE operates a dress salon in the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. (u)
