Service was commenced 9/14/71, and terminated 10/18/71. During the course of the electronic surveillance, subject was tentatively identified as one of the individuals furnishing sports line information to this bookmaking operation.

INFORMANTS

On 8/20/71 CG 6187-C advised SA ROBERT L. MALONE that (FNU) KLOTZ and ~~LOU HOOPER~~ (LOUIS ~~KOPPLE~~) bank rolled the biggest sports book in the Chicago area and that the office for this operation is manned by TONY (LNU) (ANTHONY TITO). Source was told by "YUDIE" LUFMAN that KLOTZ, LUFMAN, GUS ALEX, LENNIE PATRICK, and DAVE VARAS each have a 20 percent interest in this bookmaking operation.

On 9/14/71 informant advised that TONY, who operates the above bookmaking office, has no police arrest record. KLOTZ and HOOPER stay away from the office because they have previous arrests. According to source, this operation pays $3,000.00 per month to the Vice Control Division, Chicago Police Department, for protection and will accept no wagers under $200.00.

CG 7495-PC on 10/21/71 advised SA JOHN E. OSBORNE that MORRIS KLOTZ stated he could not go back into sports bookmaking because he is unable to obtain a line. Source remarked that recent gambling raids by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) were very disruptive to KLOTZ and his bookmaking operation.

Source continued by saying that BENNIE GLICKMAN has been having a personality conflict with TONY TITO for the last month, and GLICKMAN has been attempting to smooth things over by interceding with JIMMY GURGONE. Source said GURGONE appears to be a silent partner with TITO in the sports bookmaking operation.
