On 7/10/53, HERB MC CUSKER, Editor, Greater Miami Union News and Miami Labor Citizen, advised he had been approached by a group of men and offered the position of editor of a monthly paper to be published called "Citizens Business." Purpose of paper to publish articles commenting on local political issues. He furnished a letterhead for the "Greater Miami Foundation for Civic Education, Inc.," 2728 S. W. 28th Lane, Miami, which listed the officers and board of directors of this organization. Among those listed was one MAX FRIEDSON, Executive Secretary. MC CUSKER advised this was the group that contacted him. He advised that he did not suspect the organization but believed that there was a possibility that some of the individuals might be "tainted," but he was unable to furnish any basis for this suspicion. This is only reference listed for "The Citizens Business," in Miami files.

MM 100-0-13799

On 2/20/56, MM 463-S, whose identity is known to the Bureau, furnished a letter dated 2/10/56, addressed to "Dear Member" from the Greater Miami Foundation for Civic Education, Inc. The letterhead listed one MAX FRIEDSON, 1691 Nethia Dr., Miami 33, Fla., Highland 6-5378, as Executive Secretary. Letter advised of a dinner meeting of above organization to be held on 2/16/56, for nomination of officers for the 1956-57 term.

Above 2 references are only references in Miami files to the Greater Miami Foundation for Civic Education, Inc.

MM 100-0-13878

On 3/22/54, Mr. P. A. TRIPP, 801 30th St., West Palm Beach, Fla., advised that until recently he had been employed and resided for approximately 30 years in the Miami area and had been active in the City of South Miami where he had run for the office of Commissioner.

MAX FRIEDSON. BEILER advised that he informed SELIGMAN he was not interested and that such an organization would probably fall into the wrong hands and end up being dominated by the Communists. He suggested they contact the ACLU to see about establishing a chapter in Miami.

Professor BEILER was subsequently recontacted for further info at which time he advised that the group discussed by FRIEDSON and SELIGMAN had been formed and had adopted a name other than the Miami Civil Rights Committee, and he believed it was the Miami Chapter of the ACLU. He had not attended any meetings.

MM 100-13722

File captioned Miami Chapter American Civil Liberties Union. Serial 3. Article Miami Daily News, Miami, Fla., dated 7/23/55, lists one MAX FRIEDSON, not further identified, as one of the directors of the newly formed Miami Chapter of the ACLU.

Serial 38. MM 463-S, whose identity is known to the Bureau, furnished written report dated 2/21/58, by mail to SA MELVIN A. THOMPSON. Filed 134-35 Sub A. Included in this report was the information that one MAX FRIEDSON and a Mrs. FRIEDSON, possibly daughter-in-law, attended a special meeting of the Miami Chapter ACLU, Wednesday, 2/19/58, at the Unitarian Church. Purpose of the meeting was to decide course of action in connection with the Charley Johns Committee Hearings in Miami.

Serial 43. MM 463-S, furnished on 5/8/58, a typed report dated 4/5/58, to SA THOMPSON, filed 134-35 Sub A. This report states in part that a conversation between LEAH FELDMAN and another individual was overheard in which it was learned that one MAX FRIEDSON, not further identified, had been appointed the chairman of the drive to raise money for the ACLU's defense of Rev. EDWARD GRAHAM, against the legal moves of the Johns Committee of the Fla. State Legislature.

RE: MAX FRIEDSON

SECRET

The records of the Greater Miami Credit Bureau as caused to be checked on February 16, 1962, reveal a report dated July 6, 1961, for the Metropolitan Bank of Miami for one Max Friedson, wife Minnie, 415 S. W. 30th Road, Miami. Friedson described as white, male, age 45 to 50, employed as public relations man by R. L. Ferman and Company. Wife employed as assistant loan officer at Dade Federal Savings and Loan Association, Miami, for ten years. No local credit information available.

Current telephone directory for Greater Miami, classified section, lists the firm of Robert L. Ferman and Co., Ainsley Building, Miami, telephone FRanklin 7-1671, under the section headed Stocks and Bonds.

Records of the Miami Police Department and Dade County Department of Public Safety as caused to be checked on February 16, 1962, failed to reveal any record identifiable with Max Friedson.

Records of Miami Municipal Court, as caused to be checked on February 16, 1962, reflect case number 61116, dated November 21, 1957, for one Max Friedson, 1691 Nethia Drive, Miami, described as white, male, age 50, retired, born in New York. Friedson charged with negligence in opening a car door at which time an accident occurred. Friedson fined $10 and 4 days, received suspended sentence November 14, 1957.

The name Max H. Friedson, 1691 Nethia Drive, Miami, Florida, appeared in 1958 on the mailing list of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Incorporated. (SCEF).

The SCEF came into existence as the successor to the Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW) through an amendment to the charter of the SCHW dated April 26, 1946. This amendment listed the purpose of the SCEF as being to improve the educational and customary standards of the southern people in accordance with the highest American Democratic institutions, traditions and ideals. SCHW was cited as a communist front by the Committee on Un-American Activities in House Report 592 dated June 16, 1947.*

The above information is in reply to your memorandum S/2298 dated February 8, 1962. (S)
