On 6/10/68, Mr. ALBERTO BECERRA SIERRA, Minister, Mexican Embassy, 2829 16th Street, NW, Washington, D.C., phone AD 4-6000, advised he was in possession of an envelope postmarked Miami, Florida, and received at the Embassy 6/10/68. Mr. BECERRA SIERRA felt that the threatening communications were contained in this envelope.

On 6/10/68, Mr. BECERRA SIERRA was interviewed and he requested that the interviewing agents open the envelope which he thought contained the threats. The envelope was opened and contained therein were three Western Union telegram forms which contained a typewritten message in the Spanish language. The contents of each of

No. 3 Western Union telegram dated 6/6/68, to the Honorable GUSTAVO DIAZ ORDAZ, Palacio de Gobierno, Mexico, D.F.:

"Disregarding the petitions of the Cuban people, it obliges us to give an ultimatum of war against your Government unless you suspend all commerce with the Cuban Communists regime. If you do not do this, you will be the one responsible for the Mexican ships and planes that will be dynamited. To avoid further mishaps, don't make the mistake of under estimating this advice from Cuban power.

Signed ERNESTO
Delegate General
Cuban Power"

The envelope in which the above described telegram forms were received is postmarked Miami, Florida, and dated 6/7/68. It is addressed "The Honorable Ambassador of Estados Unidos de México to the United States, Mexican Embassy, Washington, D.C."

Mr. SIERRA advised that only he handled the enclosed envelope and he further advised that he has been fingerprinted in the past by the U.S. Immigration Service.

SIERRA further advised that the MPD is affording protection to the Mexican Embassy.

Intelligence Division, MPD, was advised of the above information.

ENCLOSURES TO BUREAU
