At the Blue Seas the manager has been developed as a PCI. At the Golden Gate the manager is most cooperative and will assist the Bureau in every way possible. At the remaining above motels and hotels investigation has proved most difficult due to the fact those individuals managing the same cannot be trusted and have proved uncooperative in furnishing any information on a confidential basis. In an attempt to develop sources and informants at the same our program has been to develop switchboard operators, bookkeepers, office employees, individuals operating the door, bell captains, maitre d's, etc.
