Re New Orleans airtel to Director, 8/23/63 &
10/11/63.

Referenced airtel reported that NO 1203C advised that telephone number 949-9183, had been acquired near the New Orleans Fair Grounds and preparation for disseminating race horse results from the New Orleans Fair Grounds to ANGELO ROSSETTI operator of the Sportsday Weekly in Boston, Mass.

Since the opening of the New Orleans Fair Grounds Thanksgiving Day, 11/28/63, close contact has been maintained with NO 1203C. The original plan to disseminate race horse information directly from the Fair Grounds was abandoned as ROSSETTI did not pay for the room to be used to observe the results of the races. The property owner wanted $700 rent for the racing season for this room.

Since the second day of the racing season JERRY BROWN and PAUL KING both of New Orleans, La., track followers, have been working with NO 1203C forwarding the racing results to the Sportsday Weekly in Boston.

NO 92-50/gml

ROSSETTI is paying $200 a week for this service which money is transmitted via Western Union Money Order addressed to PAUL KING from Mrs. PAUL KING in Boston, Mass.

Since the racing season has begun, the results of each race has been secured through the cooperation of a local book maker who receives the results from a local wire service, and then the information is relayed by either PAUL KING or JERRY BROWN to Boston. Daily at post time, ROSSETTI or an individual who works for ROSSETTI named BILL, will call the number in New Orleans, where KING or BROWN is located and receive the racing results.

NO 1230C advised he believes that they are using a pay telephone in Boston to make calls, however, they may not be using the pay phone for every call.

The above information has been submitted to Boston via separated communication.

Close contact is being maintained with NO 1230C to obtain the details of the daily activities of ROSSETTI in Boston, Mass.
