ADMINISTRATIVE

On 2/22/68, [redacted] (Protect Identity), advised that he had learned from a source that someone in Rockwall, Texas, had 75 television sets stored in a warehouse or some type of business building.

OTHER 4

[redacted] also advised that he had been in the upstairs storeroom of J. G. BOYD on North Central Expressway, a businessman who has a Magnavox dealership, as well as a dealership for another large brand name television. He advised that he had observed approximately 15 to 20 television sets in crates in the upstairs storeroom. He advised this seemed very unusual to him.

On 2/29/68, [redacted] (Protect Identity) advised he would attempt to make a trip to Rockwall and contact the person or persons who have television sets stored there and contact SA SLOAN and provide information as to the location of sets and the names of person he contacted.

No copies of this report are being furnished Seattle, as pertinent information was furnished by Dallas teletypes to Seattle dated 2/27 & 28/68, with request Seattle attempt to interview HAROLD MOTE PRUETT concerning his knowledge of and/or participation in the theft, or receiving and concealing of Magnavox manufactured items stolen in instant theft.
