WILLIAM CARR, Commercial Manager.

Leads have been set forth for the Denver and Cincinnati Offices to determine information concerning individuals mentioned by EDWIN BAKER, relative to information furnished SA JOHN CALVIN DARST on 4/9/63.

On 3/27/63, SA LIONEL E. BELANGER advised Supervisor WAYNE SWINNEY, Miami Office of information furnished by TP 31-C concerning a FRED NAVARRO and his contacts with subject at Gulfstream Racetrack.

OTHER 4

Information was set out by the Chicago Office in referenced Chicago letter that on 3/13/63, CG 6379-C advised, among other matters that RICK CASARES had been in Tampa during the period 2/19-27/63 for the purpose of financing the purchase of the Rocky Point Beach Motel, noting that this Rocky Point Beach Motel, Courtney Campbell Causeway, was formerly an interest of LOU BRADY, when BRADY was in Tampa in the past and he had mentioned the discussion of some hotel with Chicago top hoodlum, SAM GIANCANA. The source indicated that CASARES, while in the Tampa area, attended the Columbia Spanish Restaurant and during the time he was in the restaurant, an individual named SAM asked CASARES to come to his table where CASARES and SAM had a discussion. A photograph of SANTO TRAFFICANTE was displayed to the informant and he stated that TRAFFICANTE bears a close resemblance and may be possibly identical with the individual who held the discussion at the restaurant with CASARES.

Relative to the above information, it should be handled in a most discreet manner, in that CG 6379-C is a source close to [redacted]
