CG 92-350

MARCI: We'll see. We're down flat.

STEVE: That's what I told him. I said you can hear a lot of (obs) stories, but you can take my word for it, MORGAN, that we're flattened down completely. If there's anything going, they are going on their own. There's nothing to do with the chief (ph). All right he says. What if he wants to make a meet with somebody, all right I says you tell me what he wants to do and I can set up a meet for him.

MARCI: OK. Tell him you can't do nothing til we let you know.

The above is interesting in that it lends credence to the opinion held by Agents working top hoodlums matters in the Chicago Division to the effect that gambling has been down especially in the Loop area of Chicago. This also would furnish a reason why MARCI, working on behalf of the Syndicate, has worked so hard on the operations of strip joints within the Loop, this being the main source of revenue to top syndicate leaders at this time. Recent contact with CG 6443-C has developed that 50% of all proceeds from Loop strip joints with the exception of those operated by LOUIE ARGER are given to the Syndicate. Because of ARGER's close relationship to GUS ALEX only 20% of the proceeds of his clubs are turned over. It is interesting to note that these people feel that RIORDAN is now ready to be reached and that gambling can again be opened up in this district. Following the departure of this individual, D'ARCO and MARCI returned for a short while to a discussion regarding the Alderman's job which is as follows:

D'ARCO: We'd heard about it if he was in the precinct. BUDDY (JACOBSON) would have heard.

MARCI: He doesn't hear (obs). He'd run into him and think nothing of it. Would you think anything of it?

D'ARCO: GUSSIE told me to tell BUDDY. Not to tell BUDDY that he's workin' out of MARCI: Does GUSSIE know if he told that to MOE?

CG 92-350

The last several hours of the day were spent mostly in D'ARCO's office discussing the possible change in the Alderman's job. The following text is self-explanatory with the exception of the fact that the TONY mentioned is identical to ANTHONY GIROLAMI, Cook County Probate Clerk, who is a close friend of D'ARCO and who is identical with CG 6498-PC. The conversation was as follows:

D'ARCO: You got to tell those guys PAT. If they want me out tell 'em I'm sick.

MARCI: I'll tell 'em. Hell, I'm sick too, and I'm not going to break in some new guy.

D'ARCO: It will work out, don't you think.

MARCI: Yeah, don't worry.

D'ARCO: They must of talked about this before.

MARCI: JOHN, SLIM didn't know a (obs) thing about it. You mean TONY and them guys.

D'ARCO: Yeah. Listen, how are we gonna work this deal?

MARCI: Don't worry JOHN, we'll (obs) him enough to get him killed.

D'ARCO: You know how I'd like to work this, I'd like to be the Alderman and let someone else be the ward committeeman. And then will be ...the election.

MARCI: Let's not talk about it. Let's see if we can get it straightened out first.

JOHN calls BUDDY JACOBSON and tells him to come to the office right away.

D'ARCO returns to his office where several conversations take place. JACOBSON arrives and goes into D'ARCO's office. Door closes. Even with door closed D'ARCO can be heard screaming loudly. Very excited. "I've always stood up for you." "I said MOE I won't stay here." "They don't say nothing, until after it's over." "MOE..." D'ARCO is talking about MOE continually now. Can't be picked up clearly.
