ADMINISTRATIVE

On 7/11/68, [REDACTED] DL 137-2240, reported to SA RICHARD L. SLOAN that through her working relationship with PAT HALLMAN, wife of subject HAROLD LESTER HALLMAN, she has learned that PAT HALLMAN's sister SUE was at one time in possession of one of the television sets from instant theft, and that Mrs. JACK ROWE, mother of subject HAROLD LESTER HALLMAN was also in possession of one television from instant theft.

OTHER 4

[REDACTED] further advised that CLAUDE E. BRADSHAW at one time had one television in his home and one television at the apartment of his girl friend TRUDY (LNU), from instant theft.

[REDACTED] further stated that she was in the home of WAYNE FRANKLIN and observed one of the televisions from instant theft, and later learned from BILLY TEE DYER that FRANKLIN had purchased four televisions from DYER. Of these four televisions, one went to FRANKLIN's home, one to his son, name unknown, living in Dallas, Texas, and the disposition of the other two sets is unknown to her.

[REDACTED] further advised that (FNU) SIMMS, nickname ("BIGG-IN", assisted SCRIBNER and HALLMAN deliver several truck loads of televisions to Fort Worth.

[REDACTED] further advised that she had been contacted telephonically by FRANK CATON, Attorney for BILLY TEE DYER, who asked if [REDACTED] would marry DYER so that she would not have to testify against DYER in Federal Court.
