of fact "they" even had knowledge concerning MARINO, EGAN, and BEST having breakfast at the Continental Denver some four or five weeks previous.

BEST stated that he has been genuinely concerned as to EGAN's welfare and for this reason wanted to warn EGAN about the comments made by MARINO. He continued that EGAN was out of town when he, BEST, returned from Phoenix, but that at the earliest possible time, which he believed to have been on June 3, 1964, he had relayed the nature of his conversation with MARINO.

BEST stated that EGAN had not indicated to him what action he might take with regard to this information and as a matter of fact had not had an opportunity to discuss the matter with EGAN inasmuch as EGAN had been on another business trip and was not expected to return until sometime during the weekend on June 6 - 7, 1964.

With regard to MARINO, BEST stated that he has noted that MARINO frequently boasts about his contacts in Chicago and has seemed to want to impress him with the fact that he knows individuals who are indicated as being a part of the hoodlum element. He stated that he could not recall that MARINO has ever mentioned any particular person by name, and the nature of his contact with MARINO has been such that he had no basis for either believing or disbelieving any statement made by him.

Mr. BEST stated that he contemplated keeping in contact with MARINO in order that he might be able to secure specific information as to the source of the message which was intended for JAMES W. EGAN. He stated that any information obtained by him as a result of his contacts with MARINO would be promptly furnished to the FBI.

Mr. BEST stated that he would continue in his e attempt to secure additional information from MARINO as to the source of information initially related by MARINO and which involved an alleged message for JAMES W. EGAN to the effect that he could avoid any more trouble if he would contact ALDERISIO's Denver attorney and furnish an affidavit repudiating his original information as furnished to the Government.
