CG 92-466

— cop found thief

An individual known as JIMMY MARTIN, not identical with the former Notre Dame Football All-American now with the Detroit Lions;

An individual known as JIM DE LA SANTO who works at the Sahara Inn for SKAR, and several other girls were there who are employed as "playgirls" at the Playboy Club in Chicago.

SKALL advised that following the party on the boat, he accompanied SAMUELS and PERLSTEIN to the All Star Game. He stated SAMUELS had some thirty tickets to the All Star Game located in the mid-field which he gave away to friends and business acquaintances. SKALL stated that SAMUELS told him that he bet and lost $10,000 on the All Stars, having been given 20 points. He stated that SAMUELS also advised him that he is being investigated by the Nevada Gaming Commission, due to the fact that he is investing several million dollars in the Tropicana Hotel and Gambling Casino.

Concerning SAMUELS, CG 6272-C has advised SA ROEMER that SAMUELS is a close personal friend of his. He resides on Lake Shore Drive in Chicago, having just recently broken up with the girlfriend for whom he maintained an apartment in the Ambassador East Hotel. This informant advised that SAMUELS bets several thousand dollars on numerous football games during the football season and seems to be very well versed on the general condition of the participants of the games he bets on, with the result that he does very well. He also advised that SAMUELS testified approximately three years ago during the trial of "bookie SCHAFFER" in Terre Haute, Indiana; that he bet through the use of long distance phones from Chicago to Terre Haute with SCHAFFER during the 1959 football season. It is known that SKALL's information concerning SAMUELS' investment in the ^{TROPICANA}propaganda is factual inasmuch as JOHN NEWBOLD, former FBI Agent, now a private Detective in Chicago, has advised SA ROEMER that he is investigating the background of SKALL's ^{SAMUELS} for the Nevada Gaming Commission.

SKALL advised that it is very obvious that SAMUELS and HORNUNG are also very close friends and have been for many years.
