Information received from Miami source June 14, 1963, indicated there was plan to bomb Cuba from Miami. Pertinent information was furnished Custom and interested agencies locally. We also furnished this information to State, Central Intelligence Agency, Military Agencies, Department and International Situation Room at headquarters level. Original source placed in contact with Customs locally, which agency is heavily committed in Florida to prevent unauthorized flights over Cuba.

Attached information was given same dissemination on 6-16-63 and will be included in letter to Attorney General to whom we are disseminating the previous information.
