The friend stated that GEORGE EDWARD BARNES (DL 166-66, Oklahoma City origin), was involved with an unknown Tulsa bookmaker in the fixing of Missouri Valley Conference football official TOMMY FORD, and specifically the Houston - Texas A&M football game. On 10/31/62, BILL HENRY, who is employed by MERRILL, LYNCH, PIERCE, FENNER, and SMITH, a large Dallas brokerage firm, phone RI 1-5361, contacted SA ROBERT M. BARRETT and identified himself as the businessman who had furnished information to ABB CURTIS. HENRY stated that his source was a local bookmaker, "FRITZ" RECHENBERG. RECHENBERG had told HENRY that BARNES and the Tulsa bookmaker had had an argument but that it was the Tulsa bookmaker who was fixing the official. Based on information previously received from DL-172-C, it appears RECHENBERG got his information from this informant and the bookmaker referred to is (FNU) FARLEY of Tulsa.
